BUSINESS LEADERSHIP TEAM

CATIE GRIGGS

PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Catie Griggs was named the President of Business Operations for the Baltimore Orioles in July 2024 and oversees all aspects of the business operations for both the Orioles and the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN).

In her first year in Baltimore, Griggs played a pivotal role in launching the Birdland Value Menu, an affordable food and beverage menu, and MASN's direct-to-consumer streaming service, MASN+. Griggs is also overseeing renovations to Oriole Park at Camden Yards, including a new scoreboard and sound system, premium club, and social spaces.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Griggs spent three years with the Seattle Mariners as their President of Business Operations, managing all aspects of the Mariners business operations including investments to improve technology, operations, and fan experience at T-Mobile Park. In addition, she led the charge as T-Mobile Park became the first venue to host both MLB All-Star Week (2023) and the NHL Winter Classic (2024) within a calendar year. Combined, the two events generated over $80+ million in revenue for the city of Seattle and directly engaged more than 300,000 fans.

Before joining the Mariners, Griggs spent the previous four years (2017-2021) helping build Atlanta United into one of the premier Major League Soccer franchises. She was Chief Business Officer, overseeing all aspects of the Atlanta United front office. Prior to Atlanta United, she was with Futures Sport & Entertainment, as well as Turner Broadcasting. During her career, Griggs has been honored by the Sports Business Journal both as a Game Changer (2017), an annual award that honors female leaders, and 40 Under 40 (2022), an annual award recognizing the best young talent in sports business.

MARK FINE

CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Mark Fine joined the Orioles as Chief Marketing Officer in February 2025. In this role, he leads the marketing, brand and content, communications, and game presentation departments for the club shaping how the club connects with fans across Baltimore and beyond. His focus is on building the next generation of Orioles fans through innovation, storytelling, and an elevated ballpark experience that reflects the energy and pride of Birdland. Fine previously served as the Chief Marketing Officer for Professional Bull Riders (PBR), the largest bull riding organization in the world, from August 2023 to January 2025. During his tenure, PBR saw a fan base grow to its largest number ever of nearly 80 million people across the United States. Before PBR, Fine was CEO of the expansion National Lacrosse League's Las Vegas Desert Dogs, co-owned by hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and was named the 2022-23 National Lacrosse League Executive of the Year after completing the team's first season with industry-leading marketing, sales, and community-oriented initiatives.

Fine spent two years with the Brooklyn Nets as Vice President, Team Marketing during which Sports Business Journal nominated the Nets as Best in Sports Social Media and GQ named them as the Most Stylish Team in Professional Sports. Before joining the Nets, he spent six years with the New York Mets from 2013-19 as Executive Director, Marketing, where he launched fan engagement campaigns encouraging children to attend their first baseball game and spearheaded a groundbreaking collaboration with Marvel Entertainment, recognized by MLB.com as the Best Promotion in Major League Baseball in 2017. Fine got his start in live event marketing with the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters, and at Comcast Spectacor with roles at the Frederick Keys Baseball Team (MD), Xfinity Mobile Arena (PA), and Chartway Arena (VA).

Fine, a native of Baltimore and American University (D.C.) graduate, was a public relations intern with the Orioles during the 1999 and 2000 seasons and was the Assistant to the Official Scorer (Jim Henneman) at National Baseball Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game in October 2001. Fine, his wife Kim, son Max (18), and daughter Malory (16) reside in Owings Mills.

KAMAAL JONES

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

Kamaal Jones was named Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel for the Orioles in January 2025, a role in which he leads all in-house legal and compliance operations for the club.

Jones is a seasoned attorney and trusted business partner with extensive experience supporting senior executives and owners on a variety of sophisticated legal and business matters, including commercial real estate, sales and partnerships, corporate governance, information security, and intellectual property.

Jones previously worked for Monumental Sports & Entertainment, the owner of the Washington Wizards, Capitals, and Mystics, and operator of Capital One Arena in Washington, D.C. As Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel, Jones served as a thought leader, providing practical and actionable guidance to senior leaders across the organization's business and arena operations.

Prior to joining Monumental, Jones spent 10 years at Booz Allen Hamilton addressing complex business and legal issues. Jones also previously worked at Washington, D.C. law firms WilmerHale and Venable LLP, principally on commercial real estate transactions.

A native of Silver Spring, Md., Jones earned his BA from the University of Pittsburgh and JD from Harvard Law School (MA). In 2024, Jones received certification from McKinsey & Company's Black Executive Leadership Program. Jones currently lives in Chevy Chase, Md. with his wife Erin and sons Cameron (18), and Christian (14).

ROSINA LANSON

CHIEF STRATEGY OFFICER

Rosina Lanson was named Chief Strategy Officer of the Orioles in August 2025. In her role, she is responsible for overseeing business strategy, data and analytics, and technology to drive multifaceted problem-solving and research in support of both the Orioles and MASN. Lanson serves as a strategic partner to business units across organization, leading annual and multi-year planning efforts, enabling data-driven decision-making, identifying operational efficiencies, and optimizing revenue.

Lanson joined the Orioles from Major League Baseball, where she launched and led the Club Business Operations and Strategy advisory function, overseeing efforts to leverage data and strategic insights to drive revenue and fan engagement across all 30 MLB clubs. Prior to joining the baseball world, Lanson spent three years at Meta, leading strategic planning and operations for their global sports team. She was responsible for setting the strategic direction for the group across both Facebook and Instagram, helping partners achieve audience development and revenue goals through organic content.

Lanson previously spent time with the New York Jets, where she built and led business strategy for five years. In her time there, she oversaw several key cross-functional projects, including Jets Rewards – the team’s access control, in-stadium payment, and loyalty program – and club business efforts related to the Jets 2015 International Series game in London.

Lanson, a St. Louis native, began her career as a consultant in Washington, D.C. She has a degree in history from Harvard University and an MBA from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She has a keen appreciation for baseball and gooey butter cake from her St. Louis roots, and currently enjoys international travel, walking tours, and fine chocolate.

DARLINE LLAMAS LLOPIS

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Darline Llamas Llopis was appointed Chief Financial Officer of the Baltimore Orioles in April 2025. In this role, she leads the Club’s financial strategy, overseeing budgeting, financial planning, accounting, and payroll operations to support the organization’s long-term growth and success.

Before joining the Orioles, Llamas Llopis spent four seasons with the Miami Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium, and the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix as Vice President of Finance and Retail. There, she oversaw finance, accounting, payroll, accounts payable, procurement, and merchandise operations across a diverse and high-performing portfolio of sports and entertainment businesses.

Previously, she served as Director of Finance and Controller for the Los Angeles Rams, where she played a key role in building financial infrastructure and supporting the team’s transition into SoFi Stadium.

Llamas Llopis began her career in public accounting with Ernst & Young and PricewaterhouseCoopers, specializing in Commercial Real Estate.

She earned her MBA from the UCLA Anderson School of Management and holds a Master of Accountancy and a bachelor’s degree in business from the University of Southern California (USC). Llamas Llopis resides in Baltimore with her husband, Devin, and their son, Santiago.

DON ROVAK

CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Don Rovak joined the Orioles as Chief Revenue Officer in January 2025. In his role he oversees all revenue-generating and customer-facing functions across Ticketing, Corporate Partnerships, Event Booking, Premium Hospitality, and Sales/Service in both Baltimore and Sarasota, Fla. He also leads the organization’s strategic planning for membership growth, premium product development, and corporate partner integration, while playing a central role in the multi-year transformation of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, including the launch of the new Premium Club and Club Level renovations.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rovak spent 17 years with AMB Sports and Entertainment, the parent company of the Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta United FC, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, Atlanta Drive GC, and PGA TOUR Superstore. At AMBSE, he oversaw Mercedes-Benz Stadium events, private events, and ticket sales, service, and operations for both the Falcons and Atlanta United. He revolutionized season-ticket member benefits at Mercedes-Benz Stadium through free road-game tickets, industry-leading ticket-flexibility programs, enhanced pregame experiences, and premium service innovations. Under his leadership, Atlanta United ranked first in MLS in season tickets, group sales, and attendance every season, while also setting numerous single-match attendance records.

Originally from St. Louis, Mo., Rovak previously served as Vice President of Marketing & Ticketing for the Memphis Redbirds, Triple-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals. During his tenure, the club opened AutoZone Park and annually ranked first or second in Minor League Baseball attendance.

A graduate of Indiana University, Rovak and his wife, Corrie, have two sons: Jared, a student at the University of Alabama, and Dustin, a high school senior.

KATE SKIDMORE, SPHR, SHRM-SCP

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

Kate Skidmore serves as Chief Human Resources Officer for the Baltimore Orioles, where she leads the organization’s human capital and talent strategy. She joined the Orioles in 2025 following her role as Vice President of Human Resources at Capital One, where she supported over 16,000 employees across US Card and Customer Services.

Her career spans senior HR leadership roles in professional sports and corporate sectors, including the NBA and NFL Players Association, where she drove initiatives to build inclusive workplaces and high-performing HR operations.

Skidmore holds a Bachelor of Arts from Brown University and a master's degree from Georgetown University.

KERRY R. WATSON

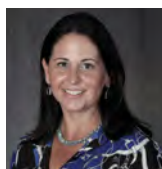

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Kerry R. Watson, Jr. was named the club's Executive Vice President, Public Affairs in September 2023. In his role, Watson oversees the club's government affairs and community development, including the Orioles Charitable Foundation. Prior to the 2025 season, he also oversaw communications and creative content for the team.

Watson was named the next Chair of the Downtown Partnership of Baltimore in November 2025. The Downtown Partnership of Baltimore plays a vital role in shaping the future of downtown Baltimore, managing a 106-block improvement district and leading initiatives that support business development, public space enhancements, inclusive employment programs, and long-term economic growth. Watson's appointment reflects the Orioles' deep commitment to the city's continued revitalization, including strengthening the connection between the Orioles and broader downtown community and supporting efforts that drive foot traffic, tourism, and civic pride.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent nearly seven years in executive positions at MGM Resorts International, including the last three years as MGM's Regional Vice President of Government Affairs. At MGM, Watson significantly grew the company's positive impact on local communities where MGM has a footprint, with specific attention to supplier diversity and job creation. Additionally, Watson led or supported efforts to pass sports betting legislation in Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, and Massachusetts. Raised in Maryland, Watson previously served as a Governmental Relations Consultant for Alexander & Cleaver, an Annapolis-based lobbying and law firm, and prior to that, as a Senior Advisor to Prince George's County Executive Rushern Baker.

Before embarking on his career in government affairs, Watson had a 20-year career with the Prince George's County Police Department.

JENNIFER GRONDAHL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Jennifer Grondahl was named the club's Senior Vice President of Communications in October 2024 after previously serving as the Senior Vice President of Community Development & Communications since October 2019, a role in which she oversaw the organization's community and philanthropic initiatives, as well as the Orioles Charitable Foundation. In her current role, Grondahl serves as the club spokesperson, focuses on building and maintaining relationships with partners, community leaders, civic organizations, fans, and the media to enhance the club's public relations efforts, and provides strategic communications guidance to the executive leadership team and ownership. She also oversees the organization's alumni relations program.

Grondahl joined the Orioles organization in February 2018 as the Director of Corporate & Community Partnerships for Sarasota Operations. Prior to joining the Orioles, she served as President of the YMCA Foundation of Sarasota, as Founder/President of Maestro Marketing & Events, where she provided strategic communication, marketing, and event planning services for numerous corporations, nonprofits, and individuals, and as the Executive Director of the American Cancer Society.

Grondahl is a member of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce Board of Trustees and serves as a mentor for college students pursuing careers in the communications field. She previously served on the Tourism, Entertainment, and Culture Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee. She was a founding member of Sisterhood for Good, the largest women's giving circle of the Manatee Community Foundation. She has also acted in leadership capacities for many charitable organizations in the Sarasota region, including Junior League of Manatee County, Rotary Club of Lakewood Ranch, and PACE Center for Girls.

Grondahl graduated from Bethany College (WV) with a bachelor's degree in political science and received her certificate in fundraising management from Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy in 2016. She currently resides in Baltimore, Md. and Bradenton, Fla. with her husband, Paul.

TROY SCOTT

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, OPERATIONS & GUEST EXPERIENCE

Troy Scott was named the club's Senior Vice President of Ballpark Operations and Fan Experience in March 2024. He joined the Orioles in June 2018 as the Vice President of Ballpark Operations. In his current role, Scott oversees all aspects of Oriole Park's operation, including the B&O Warehouse. He also oversees the operations of Ed Smth Stadium, the Orioles Spring Training home. He drives the strategic and operational initiatives of the ballpark, including security, events, guest experience, and renovations.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Scott served as the Vice President of Stadium Development and Operations for D.C. United Soccer for five years. During that time, he was responsible for all aspects of the nearly-completed D.C. United soccer stadium. Before that, he spent 16 years with Events D.C.

Scott is a member of the Stadium Manager's Association and the International Association of Venue Managers. He resides in the Baltimore area with his wife and their two children.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

MIKE ELIAS

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Elias enters his 20th season in Major League Baseball, his eighth with the Orioles, and second leading the organization's baseball operations as President and General Manager. He was named the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Orioles on November 16, 2018, and promoted to President of Baseball Operations and General Manager prior to the 2025 season.

In recognition of his success in Baltimore, Elias was voted the 2023 MLB Executive of the Year, the official award bestowed by MLB resulting from voting among the 30 clubs, the Sporting News 2023 MLB Executive of the Year as voted on by fellow AL and NL executives, and the 2023 Baseball America Executive of the Year.

During his tenure, Elias has worked quickly to revamp the Orioles' player development system, revitalize the club's international scouting presence, expand the team's analytics department, and build a high-caliber major league roster. As a result of these dedicated efforts, the franchise is flush with talent and positioned for longstanding competitiveness in the American League East.

Under Elias' leadership, the Orioles have made impactful additions to the major league roster via free agent signings, trades, and the First-Year Player Draft. On December 11, 2025, Elias signed five-time All-Star first baseman Pete Alonso to a five-year, $155 million contract, marking the club's second-largest financial commitment made to a free agent in franchise history, the largest in Elias' tenure. Pitchers acquired by Elias and his team have finished in the top 10 of American League Cy Young Voting in consecutive seasons from 2023-25: Trevor Rogers, 2025 - T-9th, Corbin Burnes, 2024 - 5th, Kyle Bradish, 2023 - 4th. Since 2019, 14 players selected in the First-Year Player Draft or signed as undrafted free agents under Elias and his team have gone on to make their major league debuts with the club.

From 2022-24, Baltimore (275-211) was tied for the second-best record in the AL and fourth best in MLB with the New York Yankees, behind only the Dodgers (309-177), Braves (294-192), and Astros (284-201). The Orioles' farm system retained the top spot in the 2024 midseason rankings by Baseball America and ESPN, marking the third straight year that they have been ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these two outlets.

The 2024 Orioles finished 91-71, the third-best record in the AL and seventh best in MLB, securing back-to-back playoff berths for the fourth time in team history, joining 1996-97, 1973-74, and 1969-71 (3). The 91 victories marked the first time the Orioles won 90 or more games in consecutive seasons since 1982 (94) and 1983 (98). The club also secured its third consecutive winning season for the first time since 2012-14. The 2022 Orioles finished with an 83-79 record, a 31-win improvement from 2021, and made a Postseason push, becoming the last team eliminated from playoff contention in the final week of the season. The 2022 campaign marked the O's first winning season since 2016, and their .512 winning percentage, a .191 increase from 2021, was the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022 in MLB and one of the more dramatic year-over-year improvements in the history of the sport. Since the start of 2022, the Orioles' .564 road winning percentage is the second best in the AL and the fourth best in MLB, trailing only the Dodgers (.605), Astros (.595), and Braves (.580). Orioles pitchers set a franchise record in 2023 with 1,431 strikeouts before following that up with 1,380 strikeouts in 2024, the second-most strikeouts by an Orioles pitching staff in club history. The 2024 Orioles clubbed 235 home runs, the third most in a single season in franchise history and the most since 2017 (232).

Over the past eight years, the Orioles have become known for their highly regarded draft classes and top-ranked player development system. With Elias at the helm, the Orioles rapidly ascended in annual MLB organizational talent rankings, moving from the bottom third before his arrival to as high as first or second overall by each of Baseball America, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline. In 2024, even after the promotion of several Top 100 prospects, including Colton Cowser and 2022 No. 1 overall pick Jackson Holliday, the Orioles maintained a top-three MLB farm system according to midseason rankings from Baseball America and MLB Pipeline. In addition, Baltimore also became the first organization in Baseball America history to have three consecutive No. 1 prospects entering the season beginning with Rutschman ('22), Henderson ('23), and Holliday ('24). The Orioles had also at least one player either win or finish in the top three in Rookie of the Year voting three consecutive seasons from 2022-24: Cowser, 2024 – 2nd, Henderson, 2023 – 1st, Rutschman, 2022 – 2nd.

Elias and his team have continued their work to establish and expand the club's international scouting efforts. Over the past six years, they have signed record-breaking classes, including an organization-high 27 players in both 2022-23 and 2019-20, and some of baseball's top prospects, including catcher Samuel Basallo. Signed in 2021, Basallo made his major league debut on August 17, 2025. Five days later, on August 22, 2025, the club announced they agreed to terms with Basallo on an eight-year contract extension covering the 2026-33 seasons with a club option for 2034. The signing marked the first long-term extension of Elias' tenure.

Under Elias' direction, the Orioles broke ground on their brand new state-of-the-art Dominican Academy, which officially opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex includes three full fields, a sports turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities. They also added a brand-new, state-of-the-art $21 million player development facility at the Ed Smith Stadium complex prior to 2026 Spring Training. The facility includes new batting cages, a hitting lab, pitching lab, office space, conference rooms, and newly renovated locker rooms and will be used by the major league roster and staff during Spring Training and by minor league players and coaches during the season.

Before joining the Orioles, Elias served as Assistant General Manager, Player Acquisition with the Houston Astros. Throughout his seven years in Houston, he helped to shape an Astros roster that produced back-to-back 100-win seasons, a World Series Championship, two American League Championship Series appearances, and two division titles. He was an integral part of building one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems that routinely served to furnish talent for the major league roster and drafted several of the game's current young superstars. Elias joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to the General Manager and was a key contributor to Houston's top-ranked First-Year Player Draft by Baseball America. That year, he was named the club's Director of Amateur Scouting, a role in which he served as one of the organization's top talent evaluators. In 2016, he was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Player Development, overseeing player development, minor league operations, and the draft. Additionally, he led international scouting efforts for the club beginning in August 2017.

Prior to joining the Astros, Elias spent five seasons as a scout with the St. Louis Cardinals, including over a year as the club's Manager of Amateur Scouting. During his time with the Cardinals, the club produced a consistently top-ranked farm system and won the 2011 World Series.

Elias, 43, is a native of Fairfax County, Va., where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. A 2006 graduate of Yale University (CT), he was a four-time letter winner as a left-handed pitcher for the Bulldogs baseball team. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Baltimore with their daughter, Evelyn, and son, Samuel.

SIG MEJDAL

VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Sig Mejdal was named the Orioles' Vice President and Assistant General Manager, Analytics on November 21, 2018. In his role, Mejdal oversees all aspects of the club's growing analytics efforts while assisting and advising President, Baseball Operations and General Manager Mike Elias in all manners of Baseball Operations decisions. Mejdal is entering his 22nd season in Major League Baseball and eighth with the Orioles.

Before joining the Orioles, Mejdal served as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Process Improvement with the Houston Astros. In this role, Mejdal supported the development, implementation, and monitoring of improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Mejdal joined the Astros in 2012 and organized the team's analytics department from its inception. He spent his seven years in Houston contributing to a variety of efforts across baseball operations, ranging from data and player analysis, to the amateur draft, and the major league team. He was a key asset in the process that helped the Astros improve their season record by more than 50 wins between 2013 and 2017, while also drafting more major league players than any other team during his tenure. During his time, the Astros won a World Series Championship, made two American League Championship Series appearances, and won two AL West division titles.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mejdal worked for the St. Louis Cardinals for seven seasons, spending his final season as the team's Director, Amateur Draft Analysis. During his time with the Cardinals, he was an integral part of the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more major league players than any other organization in that time frame. His professional baseball career began as a Quantitative Analyst for the Cardinals in 2005.

Mejdal, a California native, earned bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and aeronautical engineering from the University of California, Davis, as well as master's degrees in operations research and cognitive psychology from San Jose State University (CA). Prior to beginning his baseball career, he worked for NASA as a biomathematician. He and his wife, Arati, reside in Baltimore.

BRENDAN FOURNIE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Brendan Fournie begins his fifth season with the Orioles and first since being promoted to Assistant General Manager in November 2025. In his role, Fournie oversees baseball economics, advanced scouting and salary arbitration, and provides roster and transaction support.

Fournie joined the club in November 2021 and most recently served as the Sr. Director of Baseball Strategy & Operations after being promoted in November 2024. During his time with the club, his duties have included overseeing baseball economic research, advance scouting, and salary arbitration, while advising the baseball operations team on roster management, transactions, and contracts.

The 2026 season marks Fournie's 11th season in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent six seasons with the Houston Astros, beginning his career in 2016 as a baseball operations apprentice. He was promoted to Coordinator, Baseball Operations in 2017 and Manager, Baseball Operations in 2018 before being named the club's Senior Manager of Player Valuation and Economics in 2020, a role he held until joining Baltimore.

A native of Columbia, Ill., Fournie attended the University of Missouri and received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He received his master's degree in sport management from the University of Florida, where he also minored in statistics and entrepreneurship.

EVE ROSENBAUM

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Eve Rosenbaum joined the Orioles organization in November 2019 as the club's Director of Baseball Development and was promoted to Assistant General Manager in June 2022. In her role, she is primarily responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of both the major league team and the wider baseball operations department. This includes roster management, transactions, clubhouse operations, financial planning, staffing, integration of digital tools into decision-making processes, and long-term strategic projects. With a background in scouting, Rosenbaum also plays a key role in all player evaluation and acquisition decisions across the pro and amateur markets.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rosenbaum spent five seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently serving as the club's Manager of International Scouting. She also worked for the National Football League from 2012-15 as a Junior Rotational Program Member and as Manager of Business Intelligence and Optimization.

Rosenbaum is a native of Bethesda, Md. and attended Harvard University (MA). She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in philosophy and was a catcher on the Crimson varsity softball team. In November 2021, Rosenbaum was inducted into the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. She was named to the Baltimore Sun's 25 Women to Watch in 2023. She currently resides in Baltimore.

DANNY HAAS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT & GM

Danny Haas was hired as the Orioles Special Assistant to the President and General Manager in September 2025. Prior to joining the Orioles, Haas was with the Washington Nationals as their Vice President of Amateur Scouting, a position held since October 2023.

This marks Haas's second stint with the Orioles after working for the team from 2012-18, first as a national crosschecker (2012-14) before being promoted to special assistant to the executive vice president of baseball operations (2015-18).

In between his work with the Nationals and Orioles, Haas spent five seasons (2019-23) as a special assignment scout for the Arizona Diamondbacks. He also previously worked for the Boston Red Sox from 2002 to 2011, spending the final six seasons (2006-11) as a regional crosschecker, and in 2004, was named Boston's Scout of the Year. Haas joined the scouting ranks with the Red Sox in 2002 after a five-year professional career from 1997 to 2001. A native of Paducah, Kentucky, Haas played college baseball at both the University of Kentucky and the University of Louisville. He was selected by the Red Sox in the 18th round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft out of Louisville where he earned a degree in criminal justice.

KOBY PEREZ VICE PRESIDENT, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING & OPERATIONS

Koby Perez enters his eighth year with the club and his third as the Vice President, International Scouting and Operations after being promoted in October 2023.

Perez oversees all aspects of the Orioles' international scouting operations and management of the club's bonus pool, while also assuming supervision of operations at the Orioles' training academy in the Dominican Republic and serving as the organization's primary executive contact for all levels of Latin American player personnel business.

During his tenure, Perez has presided over four of the team's most historic international signing classes. He guided the organization to the two largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23, landed the first seven-figure signings in 2020-21 (Samuel Basallo and Maikol Hernández), and signed the two highest-paid international players in team history in 2021-22 (Braylin Tavera) and 2022-23 (Luis Almeyda). Basallo made his major league debut with the club on August 17, 2025, and agreed to terms on an eight-year contract extension just five days later on August 25. The 2025-6 international signing class marked a milestone for the organization, featuring five players ranked among MLB Pipeline's Top 50 international prospects, a new high after never having more than two in a single class.

Perez was instrumental in the development of the club's new state-of-the-art training academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic, which officially broke ground in October 2021 and opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, and includes three full fields, a sports turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

He joined the organization in January 2019 following five seasons in the Cleveland organization, first as an International Crosschecker for two years and later as their Director of Latin American Scouting. Perez has worked in professional baseball since 2006, working for the St. Louis Cardinals (2006-08), Philadelphia Phillies (2009-13), and Cleveland Indians (2014-18).

Born in Tamayo, Dominican Republic, Perez grew up in North Bergen, N.J. He played for two seasons in the Red Sox organization from 2002-03 and in the Independent Atlantic League from 2003-05.

Perez received his bachelor's degree in recreation and sports management from Florida International University. He currently resides in Elkridge, Md. with his wife, Johanna, and their children, Pamela and Koby (KJ).

MATT BLOOD VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER & STAFF DEVELOPMENT

Matt Blood joined the Orioles organization as the Director of Player Development in September 2019 and was promoted to Vice President, Player and Staff Development in November 2025 after previously serving as Vice President of Player Development and Domestic Scouting in October 2023.

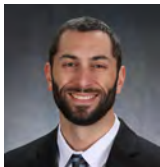

In his current role, Blood continues to oversee all aspects of the Orioles' minor league player development and operations, including staff recruitment and development and implementation of strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system. He also provides executive support at the major league level, helping with major league staff and player development as well as supporting the sports medicine and performance departments.

He previously oversaw the Orioles' player development and domestic scouting operations, including staff recruitment and development and overseeing First-Year Player Draft operations.

During his tenure, the Orioles have ascended organizational farm system rankings, including retaining their spot at the top in the 2023 midseason rankings by Baseball America, ESPN, and MLB Pipeline, marking the second straight year they were ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these three outlets. Under Blood and his team, Baltimore became the first organization to rank No. 1 in five straight MLB Pipeline farm system rankings. The Orioles player development system currently boasts several players who rank amongst the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

Blood has 14 years of major league experience and has spent 18 years in professional and amateur baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, Blood served as the Director of Player Development for the Texas Rangers for the 2019 season. He also worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout from 2009-15 and served as the Team Director for USA Baseball's 18U National Team from 2016-18.

Blood graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2007 with a degree in economics. He resides in Baltimore with his wife, Allison, and their two children, Henry and Ben.

MIKE SNYDER

VICE PRESIDENT, PRO SCOUTING

Mike Snyder enters his 18th year with the Orioles and his second as Vice President of Pro Scouting after being promoted in October 2024 following one season as the Senior Director of Professional Scouting. In this role, he oversees the club's pro scouting and player analysis across the majors, minors, and Asian professional leagues, as well as assisting with contract negotiations, 40-man roster construction, player transactions, and departmental hiring.

Snyder previously served as the club's Director of Pro Scouting (2020-23), Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development (2015-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and Baseball Operations Intern (2009). In his time with the Orioles, he has had active involvement in the amateur draft, international scouting, compliance, contracts, and salary arbitration, in addition to his pro scouting leadership that has contributed to several impact acquisitions.

Snyder graduated with honors from Princeton University (NJ) in 2008 with a degree in economics, and he received his master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University (MD) in 2019.

WILL ROBERTSON

VICE PRESIDENT, DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Will Robertson enters his ninth season in the Orioles organization, and his first as Vice President of Domestic Scouting after previously serving as Director of Player Personnel (2024-25). In his current role, he oversees all domestic scouting and First-Year Player Draft operations.

Robertson was originally drafted by the Orioles in the 2017 First-Year Player Draft and played parts of three seasons in the minor leagues with the GCL Orioles, Delmarva Shorebirds, and Frederick Keys before transitioning to the front office. Robertson's roles have included Special Assignment Scout (2023-24), Senior Analyst, Pro Scouting (2022-23), Scouting Analyst (2020-22), and Scouting Analyst Fellow (2020).

Robertson graduated from Davidson College where he studied economics. He currently resides in Washington D.C.

FORREST HERRMANN

DIRECTOR, PITCHING

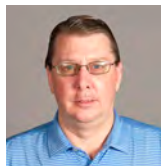

Forrest Herrmann enters his fifth season with the Orioles and first as Director of Pitching. In his role, he oversees the organizations' pitcher development and pitcher performance. Herrmann is integrated into all departments that impact pitchers.

Herrmann joined the organization in 2022 as a pitching coach with High-A Aberdeen. He spent 2023 as Double-A Bowie's Pitching Coach, also serving as a Pitching Coach in the Arizona Fall League following the conclusion of the regular season. He spent the past two years in minor league leadership serving as the Lower-Level Pitching Coordinator (2024) and the Director of Pitching Development (2025).

Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked in the Cincinnati Reds organization as their Minor League Pitching Coach with Single-A Daytona (2021). During the pandemic shortened 2020 season, Herrmann served as a remote pitching training and served amateur scouting functions for the organization. In 2019, he was a Pitching Strategist with the Seattle Mariners, assisting with player development special projects ranging from rookie-ball to the majors, with involvement in amateur scouting.

From 2016-18, he served in various leadership roles at Premier Pitching Performance, originally a private baseball facility in St. Louis that has since scaled nationwide.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Herrmann graduated from the University of Evansville (IN) with a major in business management. He and his wife, Gianna, currently reside in Baltimore with their child.

KENT QUALLS

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Kent Qualls enters his 14th year as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Orioles. He oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, the Dominican Academy, and winter ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling major league and minor league contracts, player transactions, Minor League CBA and Rules compliance.

Qualls has 29 years of professional baseball operations experience at the professional level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development and Director of Baseball Operations. He also spent eight seasons with the Montreal Expos from 1987-94, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organization.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children: Kyle and Chloe. They reside in Woodbine, Md.

DI ZOU

SENIOR DIRECTOR, BASEBALL SYSTEMS & ANALYTICS OPERATIONS

Di Zou enters his 10th season with the Orioles, and his second as Senior Director, Baseball Systems & Analytics Operations after previously serving as the Director of Baseball Systems (2022-24). In his role, he oversees development of internal baseball operations information systems and contributes to various initiatives related to baseball technology and analytics.

Zou was hired in 2017 as a Developer of Baseball Systems, a role he held for three years, before being promoted to Manager of Baseball Systems. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a software engineer at various tech companies, including the Army Research Lab, BoxTone, Bridgestone, and HubSpot, where he focused on application development and data engineering.

Zou is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in mathematics. He resides in Ellicott City, Md. with his wife and daughters.

COMMUNITY

Under the leadership of the ownership group, the Orioles organization remains deeply committed to the community. Since 1993, the Orioles and the Orioles Charitable Foundation have donated more than $30 million to countless organizations throughout Birdland, to support strengthening our community and empowering our youth through the club's pillars of play and youth sports, inner city health equity, education, and the military and first responders.

STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITY

ORANGE & BLACK GIVES BACK

Each year, the Orioles employee volunteer program, Orange & Black Gives Back, completes monthly service projects in the Birdland community. These efforts are focused on organizations that support holistic development for youth, as well as non-profits that strengthen the community by addressing food insecurity and other economic and environmental obstacles.

Orange & Black Gives Back completed 30 volunteer opportunities in Baltimore and Sarasota throughout 2025, totaling nearly 950 hours of service. Some of those projects included volunteering at Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, ShareBaby, The Baltimore Station, Weekend Backpacks, House of Ruth, Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore, Ronald McDonald House of Maryland, Reginald F. Lewis Museum, Greater Baltimore Urban League, and The 6th Branch.

BIRDLAND COMMUNITY HEROES

The Birdland Community Heroes program, sponsored by BGE, recognizes individuals whose passion, dedication, and service inspire others and strengthen our communities. In 2025, the Orioles honored eight extraordinary heroes, each embodying the spirit of compassion, service, and leadership. To acknowledge their impact, the Orioles Charitable Foundation donated $5,000 to each hero's chosen organization.

These honorees come from different backgrounds and professions, including those who teach, protect, heal, serve, and inspire. Whether making a difference across Baltimore or nearby counties, each hero embodies the spirit of Birdland and the power of community.

ALL-STARS AT THE YARD

Established in 2021, All-Stars at The Yard, formerly known as Heroes Corner, is the Orioles' way of honoring and expressing gratitude to organizations that embody the spirit of community through their dedication, compassion, and service. Presented by The Good Feet Store, the program celebrates groups whose collective efforts make a lasting impact across Baltimore and the surrounding counties.

During the 2025 season, the Orioles provided more than 1,160 tickets to 20 community organizations through the initiative. Honorees received an in-game welcome, were displayed on the Oriole Park video board, and were featured on the MASN broadcast, to serve as a well-deserved recognition for their exceptional contributions to Birdland and beyond.

COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS

In 2025, the Orioles donated nearly 35,000 tickets to local community groups and non-profit organizations through the MLB Commissioner's Community Initiative program.

HIGH-FIVE TICKET FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The High-Five Ticket Fundraising Program allows non-profit and community organizations to sell tickets for an Orioles game to their supporters and earn money for their organization. During 2025, the High-Five fundraisers sold roughly 17,000 tickets helping non-profits, schools, and sports teams raise over $85,000.

COMMUNITY TABLING ACTIVATIONS

Throughout the season, community tabling opportunities are available on the concourse to help local non-profit organizations raise public awareness for their causes, allowing them to share their mission. The Orioles hosted 24 local organizations at the ballpark in 2025.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

The Orioles are happy to support charitable organizations to positively impact the community through in-kind donations. In 2025, the Orioles donated autographed memorabilia and promotional items to non-profit organizations, with a total value exceeding $56,000. These contributions helped organizations generate funds through silent auctions and other fundraising initiatives.

SPECIALTY AUCTIONS

The Orioles hosted four specialty auctions to benefit specific community and club initiatives this past year, including the Robert Packard Center for ALS Research and Johns Hopkins, the Baltimore Design School, The Baltimore Station, and the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

EMPOWERING OUR YOUTH

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

In 2024, the Orioles announced the launch of their Adopt-A-School campaign, endorsed by Baltimore City Public Schools in support of Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, an educational institution for more than 440 students and staff serving Pre-K through eighth grade in West Baltimore. The partnership marked a significant milestone for both the Baltimore Orioles and Harlem Park Elementary Middle School as they joined forces to strengthen community ties and promote youth development. Through this initiative, the Orioles stand as a committed partner in making a meaningful impact on students' lives and learning for years to come.

In 2025, according to Maryland State Department of Education yearly school report cards, Harlem Park rose from two stars in 2024 to three stars in 2025, improving by 10 percentage points in their total earned percent, and in every individual category: academic achievement, academic progress, progress in achieving English language proficiency, and school quality and student success.

Harlem Park Elementary Middle School is a local institution dedicated to academic excellence and community enrichment. Harlem Park strives to equip their students with a growth mindset, build emotional regulation, and engage in strategic instruction to tackle academic and social challenges.

As part of the Adopt-A-School campaign the Orioles hosted several impactful events and initiatives throughout the year:

City Connect x Harlem Park Fridays: During every Friday home game of both the 2024 and 2025 seasons, the Orioles spotlighted Harlem Park Elementary Middle School students and staff members, including them in pregame and in-game activations. The attendees were given complimentary tickets and food vouchers provided by Wegmans, the exclusive grocery retail partner of the Adopt-A-School program, and an opportunity to meet players during batting practice.

2024 Playoff Share & Outdoor Classroom Renovation: In April, to mark the one-year anniversary of the Adopt-A-School partnership, the Orioles announced the donation of a renovated outdoor classroom. The funding for the classroom was made possible after the 2024 Orioles team voted to gift one playoff share to Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, which was also matched by the Orioles Charitable Foundation. The outdoor classroom features a pergola, permanent musical instruments, including a wooden xylophone, drums, and pedestal pipes, clear art easels, mobile whiteboards, picnic tables, and playground benches, and offers students a unique and interactive environment to learn and grow in.

Heart of America (HOA), a non-profit organization that transforms learning spaces and helps close resource gaps, assisted with the project, and Wegmans provided food and beverage for participating players, students, and staff as part of the event.

Teacher Appreciation: Recognizing the dedication of Harlem Park's educators, the Orioles expressed gratitude through special events and gifts, honoring their invaluable contributions to shaping young minds. Wegmans also provided a gift card and flowers to each teacher as part of the recognition.

Classroom Preparation: In support of Harlem Park teachers, the Orioles, current players, and their families assisted in setting up classrooms and provided a $12,000 donation to assist with purchasing school supplies and classroom necessities for the new school year, ensuring a welcoming and organized learning environment for students. Wegmans also provided food and gift bags for the teachers during the classroom set up.

Welcome Back to School Celebration: The Orioles warmly welcomed students and staff back to school with a day of activities, giveaways, and words of encouragement to kick off the academic year.

STEM Center: As part of the 30th anniversary celebrations of Cal Ripken, Jr. playing in his 2,131st consecutive game, surpassing Lou Gehrig's said-to-be-unbreakable record, the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation, the Orioles, and Major League Baseball announced their partnership in opening eight new STEM Centers at Baltimore City Elementary and Middle Schools, with the first opening at Harlem Park on Ripken's celebratory anniversary.

House of Melo Tour: In October, the Orioles coordinated an exclusive visit with Baltimore-native, 10-time NBA All-Star, entrepreneur, and philanthropist, Carmelo Anthony, and students and staff from Harlem Park Elementary Middle School. Students received an exclusive first look at the "House of Melo" interactive experience located at the Enoch Pratt Free Library's Central location, which celebrates the life and legacy of Melo throughout his childhood in Baltimore and during his NBA career. In addition to touring the exhibit, Melo met and took photos with the students and signed copies of his books.

The Adopt-A-School program is grounded in the belief that unwavering support and solid opportunities can play a pivotal role in accelerating student and school success. Together, the Baltimore Orioles and Harlem Park Elementary Middle School are building a foundation of hope, resilience, and shared commitment to the future of West Baltimore's youth.

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

In 2024, the Orioles committed $5 million to the CollegeBound Foundation in support of the next Baltimore renaissance. The CollegeBound Foundation empowers students from Baltimore City Schools to successfully pursue and complete a college degree or other post-secondary options. As part of the initiative and in addition to the College Completion Program and scholarships, the Orioles provided opportunities for students to tour colleges and universities. Additionally, the Orioles are providing their adopted school, Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, with an academic college and career advisor with the assistance of the CollegeBound Foundation.

ORIOLES HEALTH & FITNESS CHALLENGE

In 2016, the Orioles and Sarasota County Schools launched the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge to encourage healthy lifestyles among middle school-aged children. Since its inception, more than 36,000 students in 10 county schools have participated in the program. Participating students receive an Orioles t-shirt, complimentary food vouchers for the Orioles Fit Grill at Ed Smith Stadium, and two Orioles tickets for a Spring Training game.

The program was developed in partnership with HealthFit powered by Sarasota Memorial to teach students about the importance of physical fitness, healthy eating, and tobacco-free living. During this year's five-week program, students in grades six through eight participated in a variety of health and fitness challenges led by Sarasota County physical education teachers.

NIKE REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES (RBI) PROGRAM

As part of MLB's youth initiative, the Baltimore Orioles Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program has been inspiring underserved Baltimore City and Baltimore County youth to play baseball and softball since 1989. In 2025, the program consisted of 837 players and 47 teams. Games were played from June through August as part of the Nike RBI program supported by Giant Food. The Orioles provided each player with Nike jerseys, baseball pants, and hats, and each team that registered for the program was provided with three dozen baseballs or softballs, umpires, field permits, and scorebooks for game play. The Orioles also provided additional equipment to select programs, as well as player and coaches clinics and spaces for monthly coaches meetings.

Each RBI Division Championship team was recognized on the field prior to an Orioles game and featured on the video board during the evening. Prior to their Oriole Park visit, each team was presented with a championship banner and medals for each player.

The Orioles sent three teams of 16 players and four coaches to the Nike RBI Mid-Atlantic Regional Tournament in Cary, N.C. Each team was provided with travel, accommodations, two sets of uniforms, and meal per-diem for the event.

ORIOLES JR. RBI PROGRAM

The Orioles sponsored Gardenville, Northwood, and Hamilton Little Leaguers during the Jr. RBI season, where over 450 players ages 5-12 participated in 2025. The Orioles also provided custom jerseys and hats to players in the program.

LEAGUE OF DREAMS BEEP BASEBALL CLINIC

The Orioles are committed to helping children with mental and/or physical challenges enjoy baseball. Last year, Nike RBI athletes and coaches, supported by Giant Food, volunteered with League of Dreams to host a clinic at the Maryland School for the Blind. Volunteers took part in the clinics, assisting students with impaired vision in using adaptive equipment to play baseball. The clinics included teaching the fundamentals of hitting, fielding, throwing, and baserunning. The Orioles also provided a promotional pack of giveaways to each athlete that participated in the event.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

The Orioles and the Oriole Advocates held two “Cardboard to Leather” equipment collections at the ballpark during the 2025 season. Overall, nearly 6,000 pieces of equipment were collected and distributed to youth in underserved neighborhoods of Baltimore City and the Dominican Republic.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates are in their 62nd year of “Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball.” Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations, have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth’s birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum, and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization also acts as a valuable extension of the Orioles’ Communications and Community Engagement Departments. Made up entirely of volunteers, the Oriole Advocates show dedication, professionalism, and a strong commitment to excellence, always ready to offer their time and skills whenever needed.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

NICOLE SHERRY

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FIELD OPERATIONS

Sherry begins her fourth season as senior director of field operations after being promoted to the position in January 2023 and 23rd year in the organization. She spent the 2021-22 seasons as director of field operations after serving as Orioles head groundskeeper for 14 seasons from 2007-20. From 2001-03, she was assistant head groundskeeper for the Orioles before spending three seasons (2004-06) with the Trenton Thunder, the Double-A affiliate of the New York Yankees.

She returned to the Orioles organization in November 2006, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a major league team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA), there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post with Trenton in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others. She was also named the 2019 recipient of the prestigious Dick Ericson Founders' Award, which is awarded annually to a STMA member who effectively manages sports fields and their facility, exhibits the qualities of a true team leader, and who positively impacts the sports turf industry. Sherry, along with MLB and Discovery Education, has worked with local schools to introduce students to a variety of intriguing science and STEM concepts related to her job as director of field operations.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001.

FRED TYLER

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tyler enters his 55th season with the Orioles and fifth as home clubhouse and equipment manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He began his career as a bat boy in the visiting clubhouse in 1972 at Memorial Stadium, and since then, has served numerous roles, including visiting clubhouse assistant, Orioles clubhouse assistant (1979-83), and visiting clubhouse manager (1984-2021).

Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College (MD), and Towson University (MD). As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School righty named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Tyler lives in Arnold, Md., with his wife, Debbie. The couple has a son, Sean Duffy Tyler, and two grandchildren, Isabella and Brayden. Tyler is one of 11 children, including his older brother Jim, who serves as the umpires attendant.

JIM TYLER

UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 65th year working for the Orioles and his 13th season as umpires attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979-2012 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962 at Memorial Stadium.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he graduated from Baltimore City College (MD) High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles. His brother, Fred, is the home clubhouse and equipment manager. Tyler has two children, Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

ANDREW GUINART

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Guinart begins his fifth season as the visiting clubhouse manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He has worked in the Orioles home clubhouse during Spring Training and the regular season since 2012 after initially starting as a bat boy. Guinart joined the club in 2010 after the relocation of Spring Training facilities to his hometown of Sarasota, Fla., where he worked in the major league clubhouse during Spring Training and assisted with minor league clubhouse operations during the season. He began working in professional baseball in 2007 at the age of 14 with the Cincinnati Reds during their major league Spring Training and Class-A seasons.

He was born and raised in Sarasota with his parents, Oscar and Lisa, and two older brothers, Daniel and David. He graduated from the Sarasota Military Academy. Guinart currently resides in Baltimore City.

MLB DEBUT: August 14, 2020 vs. WSH

ACQUIRED: Second round (No. 54 overall), 2016 First-Year Player Draft

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Threw at least 2.0 innings in his first 19 outings to start the 2022 season, the longest such streak by a reliever to begin a season in MLB history, surpassing MIL's Chuck Crim (14 G, 4/8-5/30/87)... No prior Orioles reliever had done so in more than 10 straight outings
- Became the first O's pitcher in club history (since 1954) to throw more than 800 pitches in a season with a strike percentage of at least 70.0% in 2022
- Named 2018 Orioles Jim Palmer Minor League Co-Pitcher of the Year along with Zac Lowther, going 14-7 with a 3.27 ERA (50 ER/137.2 IP) and 142 strikeouts in 25 starts with Double-A Bowie

2025

- Went 5-4 with eight saves, 16 holds, and a 3.41 ERA (24 ER/63.1 IP) on 28 total runs, 54 hits (10 HR), 33 walks (2 IBB), one hit batter, and two wild pitches with 59 strikeouts in 64 appearances (3 GS)
- Appeared on his fourth career Opening Day roster, all with the Orioles (2022-25)
- Limited opponents to a .103 (7-for-68) average on his changeup, tied with PIT's Paul Skenes (.103, 9-for-87) for the second-lowest mark in MLB (min. 60 AB ending in pitch) behind AZ's Jalen Beeks (.067, 5-for-75)...Marked the second-lowest opponent average by an Oriole against his changeup in the pitch tracking era (since 2008), trailing Miguel Castro's .093 (5-for-54) mark in 2019
- Set a career high with 16 holds after recording 12 holds through his first 142 career relief appearances from 2020-24
- His 21.6 percent inherited runner scored rate (8 IRS, 37 IR) was ninth lowest in MLB
- Held right-handed hitters to a .196 (27-for-138) average, tied for the eighth-lowest mark by all left-handed pitchers in MLB (min. 150 BF)
- Tossed 3.2 scoreless innings across three starts, allowing one hit and three walks while striking out five batters
- Placed on the 15-day Injured List (left shoulder inflammation) from 7/2-27 (retroactive to 7/1)

2024

- Went 3-1 with one save, a 3.32 ERA (29 ER/78.2 IP), and 97 strikeouts in 66 games
- Set career bests in appearances and strikeouts while tying a career high in wins (2022)
- His 0.94 WHIP was the lowest by an O's left-hander since Zack Britton (0.84 WHIP) in 2016 (min. 40 G)
- Finished the season ranked among MLB leaders in expected ERA (99th percentile, 2.45), expected weighted on-base average (99th, .244), expected batting average (97th, .184), strikeout percentage

(92nd, 31.0), and expected slugging percentage (92nd, .324)...Among left-handed relievers with at least 200 batters faced, ranked ninth in strikeout percentage

- Posted a 2.70 ERA (9 ER/30.0 IP) with a 33.9 strikeout percentage (39 K, 115 BF) and a 13.00 strikeout-to-walk ratio (39 K, 3 BB) in 26 games after the All-Star break...The K/BB led MLB in that time (min. 20 G)

2023

- Went 2-2 with a 6.85 ERA (18 ER/23.2 IP) in 24 appearances (1 GS)
- Placed on the Paternity List on 4/14 for the birth of his son, Karson...Reinstated on 4/17
- Placed on the 15-day IL on 6/30 with lower back discomfort...Made a rehab appearance with the FCL Orioles on 7/31 and with Triple-A Norfolk on 8/3...Transferred to the 60-day IL on 8/23, ending his season

2022

- Set career bests in games (45), wins (3), ERA (3.20), saves (2), WHIP (1.09), and opponent batting average (.227)
- Made his first career Opening Day roster
- His 79.1 innings in relief ranked third in MLB
- Threw 864 of 1,235 (70.0%) pitches for strikes, the second-best strike percentage in MLB behind TOR's Kevin Gausman (70.2%) and best among relievers (min. 1,000 pitches)

2021

- Went 2-10 with a 6.90 ERA (59 ER/77.0 IP), 38 walks, and 65 strikeouts in 17 games as a starter... Pitched to a 5.50 ERA (11 ER/18.0 IP) in seven games as a reliever
- Threw the 100th inning of his career and struck out Kevin Smith on a foul tip for his 100th career strikeout on 8/31 at TOR
- Threw his first career quality start on 8/26 vs. LAA, tossing a career-high 7.0 innings of one-run ball with three hits (1 HR), two walks, one hit batter, and six strikeouts
- Recalled from Norfolk on 5/10 and spent the remainder of the year with the O's
- Placed on the 10-day IL (left adductor strain) on 9/24 before being transferred to the 60-day IL on 9/28, ending his season

2020

- Went 1-2 with a 4.56 ERA (13 ER/25.2 IP) in eight appearances (6 GS) across his first MLB action
- Made his MLB debut on 8/14 vs. WSH, entering the game in the fifth inning (3.0 IP, 3 ER, 2 H, HR, BB, K)...Struck out Luis García (second batter faced) for his first career strikeout
- Made his first career start on 8/31 at TOR (4.1 IP, 3 H, 2 R, 2 BB, 6 K)

- Earned his first career win on 9/16 vs. ATL (5.0 IP, 3 H, BB, 9 K)...His nine strikeouts were a career high and the most by an Orioles rookie since Dylan Bundy fanned nine on 8/7/16 vs. CWS

- Struck out six batters in a row in his 9/16 start, becoming the first Oriole pitcher with six straight strikeouts in a game since John Wasdin on 9/30/01 at NYM, per the Elias Sports Bureau

2019

- Went 6-7 with a 4.73 ERA (59 ER/112.1 IP) and 131 strikeouts in 25 appearances (24 GS) with the Tides
- Named an International League Mid-Season All-Star and became the first Norfolk pitcher to start the Triple-A All-Star game since Jason Scobie (2005)
- Became the first Tide to lead the IL in strikeouts (131) since Manny Hernandez in 1990 (157 K)...The 131 strikeouts were the most by a Tides player as an Orioles affiliate at the time
- Added to the 40-man roster on 11/20

PERSONAL:

- Married, wife's name is Haley...The couple has a son, Teddy
- Given the nickname "Polar Bear" by Todd Frazier during Spring Training in 2019
- Is a big Jerry Seinfeld fan and has met the comic several times...Seinfeld awarded Alonso the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award at the 2019 BBWAA annual awards dinner in New York
- Started The Alonso Foundation with his wife Haley... Their Homers For Heroes initiative was started during the COVID-19 pandemic...Alonso says "Homers For Heroes basically brings people to light that are absolutely going above and beyond their call of duty...What I want to do is help people that are helping others that are kind of in the shadows"...As part of his foundation, sponsored the training of a service dog in 2023 named Bear to be partnered with a veteran in need of a service dog...Sponsored a dog in 2024 as well
- The Alonso Foundation focused on animal rescue in 2024...For every home run Alonso hit, $1,000 was donated to various programs helping remove animals (especially dogs) from kill shelters as well as providing toys and pet supplies for those animals' eventual owners

- Introduced The Love of the Game initiative in 2023...Several area organizations received grants from The Alonso Foundation along with 50 tickets plus food to an upcoming Mets game...Each organization distributed the tickets to their youth and family beneficiaries, many of whom have never been to a game, as well as receiving a grant via check presentation on-field before the game... Among the groups honored were Castle Hill Little League in the Bronx, Answer The Call, supporting families of fallen first responders, Rockaway Little League and Cadets Baseball Club, and North Shore Animal League
- The Alonso Foundation hosted Pete Alonso's Battle for the Bay at Plant High School in January 2023 and 2024...The event included a youth home run derby and appearances from major leaguers... Attendees included: All-Stars Randy Arozarena and Shane Bieber, fellow Plant HS alum Kyle Tucker, and longtime Tampa Bay Ray Carlos Peña
- During Spring Training in 2021, created an NFT and auctioned it off to benefit More Than Baseball, a nonprofit dedicated to supporting minor leaguers who need financial support with housing, equipment, and nutrition...The NFT was designed by former Mets minor leaguer Tommy Wilson
- In 2021, Alonso hosted The Battle of the Boroughs presented by Citi at Maimonides Park, the home of the Brooklyn Cyclones...Fans watched top youth baseball players from around NYC compete in a home run derby...All proceeds benefited the Homers for Heroes foundation
- During the 2020 season, his foundation honored a hero after each of the Mets' 60 games...Each hero received a care package, which included game-used memorabilia from Alonso
- Participated in a Fanatics auction during the pandemic, offering a private fishing charter which raised $70,000 towards Feeding America, Meals on Wheels, World Central Kitchen, and No Kid Hungry
- Used a custom-designed bat during the 2019 All-Star week and Players' Weekend, named "Haley's Comet" in honor of his then-fiancée...Using that bat, he won the Home Run Derby...Hit his 41st home run of the 2019 season with the bat, tying the Mets' single-season record
- Designed custom-made, 9/11-themed cleats for himself and his teammates for the Mets' home game on 9/11/19 vs. AZ...Donated the cleats to the National September 11 Memorial & Museum on 10/1/19...Wore special cleats again in 2021 and 2023
- In 2019, donated 10 percent of his $1 million Home Run Derby winnings to charity, giving $50,000 to Wounded Warrior Project and $50,000 to the Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Foundation...In 2021, he donated a portion to his Homers for Heroes foundation

MLB DEBUT: September 20, 2021 vs. TOR

ACQUIRED: From the Tampa Bay Rays in exchange for C Caden Bodine, OF Slater de Brun, RHP Michael Forrest, OF Austin Overn, and a 2026 Competitive Balance Round A pick, December 19, 2025

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- On 9/20/21 vs. TOR, made his major league debut at 22 years, 95 days old and earned the victory, becoming the third-youngest Ray to start and win his MLB debut behind Scott Kazmir (20y-212d) on 8/23/04 at SEA and Joe Kennedy (22y-013d) on 6/6/01 at TOR
- 78.5 percent (51-of-65) of his pitches were strikes, the highest for a starting pitcher in his major league debut since pitches were first tracked in 1988, according to Stats Perform
- On 10/8/21 vs. BOS, started Game 2 of the ALDS, becoming the second pitcher in MLB history to start a Postseason game with three or fewer career regular season appearances up to that point, joining TB's Matt Moore in Game 1 of the 2011 ALDS at TEX
- Became the second-youngest pitcher in Postseason history to start against the Red Sox behind 21-year-old NYM's Dwight Gooden in the 1986 World Series
- Pitched for Team USA in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics (7/30-/8/7/21) and won a silver medal...Started against Japan in Game 1 of the modified double elimination bracket, his only Olympic appearance, allowing two runs and three walks in 2.2 innings of a no decision
- On 8/14/18, traded from the Pittsburgh Pirates to the Rays as the player to be named of the 7/31/18 deal that sent RHP Tyler Glasnow and OF Austin Meadows to Tampa Bay in exchange for RHP Chris Archer

2025

- Made 31 starts with the Rays, going 10-12 with a 4.87 ERA (26 ER/166.1 IP) on 158 hits (26 HR), 64 walks, nine hit batters, three wild pitches, and 176 strikeouts
- Made his first career Opening Day roster
- Set career highs in starts, wins, strikeouts, innings, and quality starts (11)
- Was one of three Rays starters to remain active all season along with Ryan Pepiot and Drew Rasmussen
- Registered 86 strikeouts on his knuckle-curve, most on any knuckle-curve in the majors and third most on a pitcher's curveball of any type, trailing curves belonging to HOU's Framber Valdez (121) and BAL/DET/ATL's Charlie Morton (89)
- His 97.0 mph average fastball velocity was fifth fastest in the AL and ninth fastest in the majors among qualified pitchers
- Made five starts of 7.0+ innings, tying Zack Littell for the club lead
- On 6/26 at KC, tossed a career-high 8.0 scoreless innings, scattering three hits and one walk with nine strikeouts in a winning effort...Marked the first start of 8.0 scoreless innings or more by a Rays pitcher since Tyler Glasnow on 5/26/21 vs. KC (8.0 IP)

- On 7/1 vs. ATH, matched a career high with 11 strikeouts, tying his total from earlier in the season on 4/14 vs. BOS

2024

- Went 4-3 with a 3.06 ERA (27 ER/79.1 IP) across 14 starts with Tampa Bay in his return from Tommy John surgery
- Began the season on the 15-day Injured List after suffering two oblique injuries during Spring Training...Activated on May 23 and optioned to Triple-A Durham that day
- Went 3-3 with a 4.12 ERA (18 ER/39.1 IP) in 10 starts for the Bulls to open the season
- Min. 60.0 innings, his 2.72 ERA (21 ER/69.0 IP) after the All-Star break was 10th lowest in club history, including the lowest by a Rays pitcher age 25 or younger since Blake Snell (1.17 ERA) in 2018

2023

- Did not pitch after undergoing 2022 Tommy John surgery
- Began throwing bullpen sessions in September, but remained on the IL for the entire season

2022

- Limited to six starts with the Rays due to injury, going 1-2 with a 5.00 ERA (15 ER/27.0 IP)
- On 3/21, underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove loose bodies from his right elbow, performed by Dr. Keith Meister
- Began a throwing program from 45 feet on 4/7, progressed to throwing from the bullpen on 4/26, and threw live batting practice beginning on 5/9
- Threw 2.0 innings in an extended spring game on 5/14 and officially began a rehab assignment with Durham on 5/19
- On 6/17/24 at BAL, started on his 23rd birthday and yielded two hits in 6.0 scoreless innings, becoming the youngest MLB pitcher to go at least 6.0+ scoreless innings with 7+ strikeouts on his birthday since CAL's Marcelino López pitched a three-hit shutout with 12 strikeouts on his 23rd birthday on 9/23/66 vs. BAL
- On 7/12, experienced right elbow discomfort while playing catch and was placed on the 15-day IL the next day
- Evaluated on 7/14 by Dr. Keith Meister...Received an injection and advised to try a program of rest, treatment and rehab...Continued to feel discomfort in throwing sessions and underwent Tommy John surgery on 9/28, performed by Dr. Meister
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 32 overall prospect in the minors following the season...The publication also tabbed him as having the Best Fastball in the organization for a fourth consecutive year and Best Slider in the organization for a fifth consecutive year

- Went 2-0 with a 2.03 ERA (3 ER/13.1 IP) and 18 strikeouts across three starts in his first major league action
- Made his first career Postseason appearance, starting Game 2 of the ALDS vs. BOS, yielding three runs in 2.1 innings
- Named Minor League Pitcher of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department, going 5-4 with a 2.06 ERA (18 ER/78.2 IP) and 113 strikeouts in 17 starts between Double-A Montgomery and Durham
- Named Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Month for June, going 3-0 with a 0.93 ERA (3 ER/29.0 IP) and 42 strikeouts in six starts
- Selected to the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game, pitching a perfect second inning with two strikeouts
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 8 overall prospect in the minors following the season

2020

- Part of the Rays 60-man player pool and spent the summer at the Alternate Training Site in Port Charlotte
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 6 Rays prospect following the season

2019

- Spent the entire season with Single-A Bowling Green, going 3-2 with a 2.99 ERA (27 ER/81.1 IP) in 17 starts
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 71 overall prospect in the minors at the end of the year
- Following the season, made eight appearances (1 GS) for the Salt River Rafters in the Arizona Fall League

2018

- Split the season between Pirates and Rays systems, going 4-5 with a 4.47 ERA (26 ER/52.1 IP) across 12 starts
- On 7/31, acquired by Tampa Bay from Pittsburgh as the player to be named later in the deal involving Chris Archer
- At the time of the trade, was ranked by Baseball

America as the Pirates No. 4 prospect

2017

- Made his professional debut with the FCL Pirates, going 0-3 with a 3.80 ERA (10 ER/23.2 IP) over 10 starts

AMATEUR:

- Selected by the Pirates in the first round (12th overall) of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of Concordia Lutheran (TX) High School...Committed to pitch at Texas Christian University before signing with the Pirates

PERSONAL:

- Father, Raja, hails from Beirut, Lebanon...Raja joined a local slow-pitch softball league after Shane expressed interest in the sport...Raja eventually went on to play professional slow-pitch softball for the Coors Light Silver Bullets and coached several of his son's youth baseball teams
- Shane says his mother, Tammy, is the reason he keeps his long hair...He has described her as a "70's child" who loves rock 'n' roll
- On the same day he signed with Texas Christian University in November 2016, he learned his mother beat breast cancer and was declared cancer-free...He chose to sign with the Horned Frogs so his parents and family had several opportunities to see him play in person...He ultimately chose to forgo college after being drafted by the Pirates

MLB DEBUT: April 16, 2019 at MIL

ACQUIRED: Signed to a two-year major league contract with a player opt-out following the 2026 season, December 1, 2025

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has averaged 98.8 mph on his fastball since making his MLB debut in 2019, the second-highest mark in MLB (min. 2,000 pitches) behind CLE's Emmanuel Clase (99.5 mph)
- Since 2022, ranks among MLB relievers in Baseball Reference Wins Above Replacement (T-6th, 7.3 bWAR) and saves (7th, 103)...During that same period, opponents are batting .141 (50-for-354) against his slider, the sixth-lowest average among major league relievers off a single pitch (min. 250 AB)
- Has allowed one or zero home runs in each of his 297 career appearances...Since making his MLB in 2019, the 297-game streak is tied with NYY's Camilo Doval for the second-longest active run among all MLB relievers during that period, trailing CLE's Emmanuel Clase (365 G)
- Unanimously selected as the 2024 Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year
- Led MLB and set a Cardinals single-season franchise record with 49 saves during the 2024 season, surpassing Trevor Rosenthal's previous team record (48 SV, 2015)
- Recorded 32 saves prior to the 2024 All-Star break, becoming one of eight pitchers in MLB history, including the first Cardinal, to accomplish the feat
- Twice named an NL All-Star (2022, 2024) with St. Louis, joining Hall of Famers Lee Smith (1991-93) and Bruce Sutter (1981, 1984) as the only Cardinals closers in franchise history to be named to multiple All-Star teams
- Named to the 2024 All-MLB First Team and the 2022 All-MLB Second Team
- Recorded a franchise-record 31 straight save opportunities with St. Louis from 4/1-7/2/24
- During the 2022 campaign, set the single-season franchise record for a St. Louis reliever in opponent on-base percentage (.201), WHIP (0.74), base runners per nine innings (6.68), and strikeout rate (39.3%), while tying the club record for ERA (1.25) and opponent average (.128)
- Completed his Cardinals career (2019-25) with 105 saves, sixth most in club history behind Jason Isringhausen (217 SV), Smith (160 SV), Todd Worrell (129 SV), Sutter (127 SV), and Rosenthal (121 SV)

2025

- Went 3-4 with 21 saves and a 4.50 ERA (28 ER/56.0 IP) on 61 hits (8 HR), 25 walks (3 BB), 63 strikeouts, one hit batter, and seven wild pitches in 58 appearances between the Cardinals and Mets
- Limited opponents to a .140 (15-for-107) average with 43 strikeouts off his slider, the sixth-lowest average among all MLB relievers (min. 100 AB)

- On 7/30, was acquired by the Mets from the Cardinals in exchange for INF Jesus Baez, RHP Nate Dohm, and RHP Frank Ellissalt
- In his final six appearances of the season, tossed 7.0 scoreless innings with a .143 (3-for-21) opponent average...Posted an 11.08 ERA (16 ER/13.0 IP) and .355 (22-for-62) opponent average across his first 16 outings following the trade

2024

- Made 65 appearances with the Cardinals, going 7-4 with 49 saves, a 2.04 ERA (15 ER/66.1 IP), and 79 strikeouts...Finished ninth in NL Cy Young voting
- Became the first Cardinals end-of-season reliever of the year award winner (Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year) since Ryan Franklin was named 2009 NL Fireman of the Year
- Was a three-time NL Reliever of the Month winner (March/April, June, September)...Joined SEA's/ NYM's Edwin Diaz (4x, 2018 & 3x, 2022), CLE's Emmanuel Clase (3x, 2022 & 2024), and BAL's Félix Bautista (3x, 2023) as three-time Reliever of the Month winners in the same season
- Posted perfect outings in 24 saves, the most 1-2-3 saves in St. Louis history, surpassing Lee Smith (19 G, 1992)
- Named to his second career All-Star Game, but did not pitch in the Midsummer Classic
- On 9/27 at SF, broke the Cardinals franchise record with his 49th save (1.0 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 2 K)

2023

- Went 3-4 with 14 saves, a 2.45 ERA (10 ER/36.2 IP), and 52 strikeouts in 33 appearances with St. Louis
- Averaged 99.7 mph of his fastball, the fourth-highest clip in MLB
- On the 60-day Injured List (right forearm strain) from 6/10-8/31, missing 70 games
- Following his reinstatement, posted a 0.77 ERA (1 ER/11.2 IP) with seven saves and 19 strikeouts over 11 appearances to close the season
- On 9/18 vs. MIL, recorded the final four outs of Adam Wainwright's 200th career victory

2022

- Made 54 appearances with the Cardinals, going 9-1 with 19 saves, a 1.25 ERA (9 ER/64.2 IP), and 94 strikeouts
- Named to his first career All-Star Game...Tossed a scoreless frame, allowing one hit and striking out two
- His 39.3 percent strikeout rate ranked third among qualified MLB relievers behind NYM's Edwin Diaz (50.2%) and MIL's Devin Williams (40.0%)
- Ranked among qualified MLB relievers in opponent average (1st, .128), hits per nine innings (1st, 3.90),

MLB DEBUT: August 25, 2020 (G2) at NYM

ACQUIRED: From the Miami Marlins in exchange for INF/OF Connor Norby and OF Kyle Stowers, July 30, 2024

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- During the 2025 campaign, his 1.81 ERA (22 ER/109.2 IP) was the lowest mark by an Oriole starter (min. 100.0 IP) in franchise history (since 1954), ahead of Dave McNally (1.95 ERA, 1968) and Jim Palmer (2.07 ERA, 1972)
- His .180 (70-for-388) opponent average, .263 opponent slugging percentage, and .503 opponent OPS were the lowest marks by an Oriole starter (min. 100.0 IP) in franchise history (since 1954), while his .240 opponent on-base percentage ranked second behind McNally (.232 OBP, 1968)
- From 7/6-8/30/25, made 10 straight starts of 6.0+ innings and allowing two or fewer runs, setting the franchise record...Marked the longest stretch by an MLB starter (excluding openers) in a single season since SEA's Félix Hernández (17 GS, 5/18-8/16/14)
- Named 2025 American League Pitcher of the Month for August, going 4-1 with a 1.29 ERA (6 ER/42.0 IP) across six starts...Became the first Oriole to earn the honor since Corbin Burnes (September 2024) and the first Oriole left-hander since Erik Bedard (July 2007)...Became the first Oriole in franchise history (since 1954) to make at least five starts and allow one or zero runs in each of the outings in a single month
- Named to the 2021 NL All-Star team, becoming the sixth Marlins rookie in franchise history to accomplish the feat
- From 9/26/20-9/4/21, allowed three earned runs or fewer in 22 straight starts, setting the Marlins franchise record, previously shared by José Fernández (2013-14) and Josh Johnson (2010)

2025

- Went 9-3 with a 1.81 ERA (22 ER/109.2 IP) on 70 hits (6 HR), 29 walks, and two hit batters with 103 strikeouts across 18 starts
- Voted winner of the 2025 Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media, joining Randy Myers (1997), Mike Cuellar (1974), and Dave McNally (1968) as the only left-handed pitchers in franchise history to be named Most Valuable Oriole...He was the first pitcher to earn the honor since Rodrigo Lopez (2002)
- Led the Orioles with a career-high 5.5 Baseball Reference Wins Above Replacement, the third-highest mark by an Oriole southpaw in franchise history (since 1954), behind Dave McNally (5.9 bWAR, 1968) and Erik Bedard (5.7 bWAR, 2007), and highest by an Oriole pitcher since Bedard in 2007
- His ERA was second lowest in MLB behind TEX's Nathan Eovaldi (1.73), while his opponent average, opponent slugging percentage, and opponent OPS each led all pitchers (min. 100.0 IP)

- On 8/1 at CHC, threw his first career complete game (L, 8.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 8 K), becoming the first Oriole starter to throw a complete game since Dean Kremer (9/23/22 vs. HOU, 9.0 IP)...Became the first Oriole to suffer a loss in a complete game since Chris Tillman (9/14/13 at TOR, 8.0 IP, 6 H, 4 R, 1 HR, 2 BB, 4 K)
- Began the season on the 15-day Injured List after being placed on the IL on 3/27 (retroactive to 3/24) with right knee subluxation...Reinstated on 5/11 and optioned to Triple-A Norfolk that day
- Went 0-3 with a 5.46 ERA (18 ER/29.2 IP) over seven starts with the Tides

2024

- Went 2-11 with a 4.92 ERA (68 ER/124.1 IP) in 25 starts between the Marlins and Orioles
- His 25 starts tied a career high (also 2021), while his 11 losses tied a career high (2022)
- Began the year with Miami, going 2-9 with a 4.53 ERA (53 ER/105.1 IP) over 21 starts
- On 7/30, was acquired by Baltimore in exchange for INF/OF Connor Norby and OF Kyle Stowers
- Made four starts with the O's, going 0-2 with a 7.11 ERA (15 ER/19.0 IP) before being optioned to Norfolk, where he made five starts to close the year
- On 8/1 at CLE, made his Orioles debut (L, 4.1 IP, 6 H, 5 ER, 1 HR, 3 BB, 3 K)

2023

- Went 1-2 with a 4.00 ERA (8 ER/18.0 IP) across four starts with Miami
- Placed on the 15-day IL on 4/21 (left biceps strain)...Made two rehab outings, but suffered a setback in his non-throwing shoulder, ending his season...Transferred to the 60-day IL on 6/14

2022

- Went 4-11 with a 5.47 ERA (65 ER/107.0 IP) across 23 starts with the Marlins
- Had two stints on the 15-day IL: 7/26-8/31 (low back spasms) and 9/19-end of season (left lat strain)

2021

- Went 7-8 with a 2.64 ERA (39 ER/133.0 IP) and 157 strikeouts in 25 starts with Miami
- Had the second-lowest ERA by a rookie in Marlins history behind José Fernández (2.19 ERA, 2013) and the third-most strikeouts behind Fernández (187 K, 2013) and Scott Olsen (166 K, 2006)
- Selected to his first career All-Star Game...Surrendered two unearned runs on two hits in the fourth inning of the game at Coors Field
- Named NL Rookie of the Month in April and May 2020

- Went 1-2 with a 6.11 ERA (19 ER/28.0 IP) and 39 strikeouts in his first career MLB action with Miami
- Began the season at the Marlins Alternate Training Site in Jacksonville

ROGERS

- On 8/25, had his contract selected and made his MLB debut in Game 2 vs. NYM (4.0 IP, 1 H, 5 BB, 6 K)... Fanned J.D. Davis for his first career strikeout
- Was on the Marlins' Postseason rosters in the Wild Card Series vs. CHC and Division Series vs. ATL...Made his playoff debut in relief of Game 3 of the NLDS (1.2 IP, 4 H, 2 ER, 1 BB, 2 K)

2019

- Made 23 starts between High-A Jupiter and Double-A Jacksonville, going 6-10 with a 2.90 ERA (44 ER, 136.1 IP) and 150 strikeouts
- His 150 strikeouts led all Marlins farmhands, while also ranking in innings (T-2nd), starts (3rd), ERA (6th), WHIP (7th, 1.14), and opponent average (8th, .235)
- Named a Florida State League Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star

2018

- Made his professional debut with Single-A Greensboro, going 2-7 with a 5.82 ERA (47 ER/72.2 IP) and 85 strikeouts across 17 starts

2017

- Did not pitch after being selected 13th overall by Miami in the 2017 First-Year Player Draft

AMATEUR:

- Graduated from Carlsbad (NM) High School
- Was committed to Texas Tech University before signing with Miami

PERSONAL:

- Married, wife's name is Tessa...The couple was married in November 2022, and former Marlins teammates Braxton Garrett and Will Stewart were both groomsmen at their wedding
- His cousin is Cody Ross, a 12-year MLB veteran from 2003-15 with the Tigers, Dodgers, Reds, Marlins, Giants, Red Sox, Diamondbacks, and Athletics...Ross won the 2010 World Series with the Giants and was named the MVP of the NLCS against Philadelphia that season

ACQUIRED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, June 14, 2020

OPENING DAY AGE: 27

RESIDES: Kountze, TX

MLB DEBUT: April 19, 2025 vs. CIN

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- On 8/15/25 at HOU, completed 7.2 perfect innings before surrendering a two-out infield single to Ramón Urías, marking the longest perfect-game bid by an Oriole since Mike Mussina was perfect through 7.2 innings on 8/4/98 vs. DET
- On 7/8/25 vs. NYM, threw an immaculate inning in the fifth frame, becoming the fifth pitcher in Orioles history (since 1954) to accomplish the feat, joining Kevin Gausman (4/23/18 vs. CLE, 7th inn.), B.J. Ryan (9/5/99 vs. CLE, 6th inn.), Mike Mussina (5/9/98 vs. TB, 9th inn.), and Jimmy Key (4/14/98 vs. CWS, 2nd inn.).

2025

- Went 1-7 with a 6.24 ERA (40 ER/57.2 IP) on 67 hits (12 HR) and 22 walks with 47 strikeouts across 12 starts in his first major league action...Had five stints on the active roster
- On 4/19, recalled from High-A Aberdeen and made his MLB debut vs. CIN that day (4.0 IP, 7 H, 3 ER, 3 BB, 3 K, 1 HR)...Fanned Matt McLain in the second inning for his first career strikeout
- On 8/15 at HOU, tossed a career-high 8.0 innings, allowing only one hit in his first career victory... Became the first Oriole rookie to throw 8.0 scoreless innings and allow one or zero hits since Chris Waters (8/5/08 at LAA)
- The victory on 8/15 at HOU snapped a streak of 10 starts without a win to begin his career, marking the second-longest winless streak to begin a career in franchise history (since 1954), trailing Jimmy Yacabonis (11 GS, 6/28/18-8/4/19)
- Placed on the 15-day Injured List (left hamstring strain) on 8/22, and transferred to the 60-day IL on 8/27, ending his season
- Went 2-1 with a 2.70 ERA (10 ER/33.1 IP) and 36 strikeouts in seven starts between Triple-A Norfolk (5 GS) and Aberdeen (2 GS)

2024

- Named 2024 Orioles Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year, going 5-6 with a 3.57 ERA (44 ER/111.0 IP) and 132 strikeouts over 27 appearances (24 GS) between Double-A Bowie and Norfolk

- Made seven appearances (6 GS) with the Baysox prior to his 5/28 promotion to the Tides
- Ranked among Orioles minor leaguers in strikeouts (3rd), starts (4th), and innings (5th)
- On 11/19, added to the 40-man roster

2022

- Limited to three starts with Bowie due to injury
- Placed on the 7-day IL on 4/28 and transferred to the 60-day IL on 5/28
- Underwent right elbow ulnar collateral ligament reconstruction on 6/1, ending his season

2021

- Made his professional debut between Single-A Delmarva and Aberdeen, going 4-3 with a 3.52 ERA (33 ER/84.1 IP) and 114 strikeouts over 23 appearances (20 GS)
- Ranked among O's farmhands in starts (T-3rd), strikeouts (6th), and innings (10th)

2020

- Did not play due to the minor league season being canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic
- Signed with the Orioles as a non-drafted free agent on 6/14

AMATEUR:

- Attended the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and Howard Community College (TX)
- Earned Western Junior College Athletic Conference All-Conference Honorable Mention as a freshman at Howard in 2017
- Graduated from Lumberton (TX) High School

PERSONAL:

- His head coach at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Matt Deggs, said of Young, "Brandon is big, physical and very versatile. He can start or pitch in the back of the bullpen. He always wants the ball, loves to pitch and most importantly loves to compete. He pitches with bad intentions for the hitter and I love that."

SEASON NOTES

THAT'S A WRAP: The Orioles completed the 2025 season 75-87 and in fifth place in the American League East, 19.0 games behind the Toronto Blue Jays, who won the division on a tiebreaker with the New York Yankees...Baltimore finished 12.0 games out of a Wild Card spot.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE: Baltimore used 70 different players, tied for the second-most players in a season by a team in major league history with the 2024 Marlins, trailing the 2025 Braves (71)...The previous O's high was 62 players in 2021.

The O's used 41 different pitchers (including position players), second most in a season in franchise history (since 1954) behind the 2021 Orioles (42)...The AL record for most pitchers used in a season is 42, shared by the 2021 Orioles and 2019 Mariners.

The Orioles had 34 different position players appear in a game, the most by a major league team since 2022 (37, SF; 34, LAA, OAK, PIT) and tied for the most in a season in franchise history with 1955.

Twenty-three Orioles hit a home run, breaking the team record (since 1954) from 2018 and 2012 (22)...That's the most players to homer for one MLB team in 2025.

Baltimore had 19 players steal a base, breaking the O's record of 17 from 2018, 2001, 1990, 1988, and 1955.

Seven different players appeared at catcher, setting the franchise record...The last MLB club to use at least seven catchers in a single season was the 2023 Guardians (also 7).

AL BEAST: The O's went 22-30 against the AL East, their worst record since the schedule moved to 13 divisional games prior to the 2022 season...The Birds won the season series against the Rays (7-6), but lost against the Blue Jays (6-7), Red Sox (5-8), and Yankees (4-9).

Baltimore dropped its final six road games against the division at Toronto (3 G, 9/12-14) and New York (3 G, 9/26-28).

ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF: Baltimore finished the regular season with 11 players on the 28-man active roster who were on the 26-player Opening Day roster...The seven position players were Colton Cowser, Jackson Holliday, Jorge Mateo, Ryan Mountcastle, Tyler O'Neill, Adley Rutschman, and Jordan Westburg...Of those seven, only Holliday did not spend time on the Injured List at some point during the year...The four pitchers were Keegan Akin, Yennier Cano, Dean Kremer, and Tomoyuki Sugano.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: The Orioles had 10 players make their major league debuts in 2025 - six pitchers and four position players: Samuel Basallo, Dylan Beavers, Maverick Handley, Yaramil Hiraldo, Jeremiah Jackson, Carson Ragsdale, Kade Strowd, Tomoyuki Sugano, Grant Wolfram, and Brandon Young.

Sugano started the fourth game of the season for the Birds and was the first Oriole to make his debut on March 30 at Toronto...At 35 years, 170 days old, Sugano became the oldest player in team history (since 1954) to make his major league debut with the club.

Basallo had his contract selected from Triple-A Norfolk on August 17 at Houston...When he debuted at 21 years, 4 days old, he was the youngest position player in the majors, later surpassed by SF's Bryce Eldridge on September 15 at Arizona (20y-330d).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Trevor Rogers was voted the winner of the 2025 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media...He became the first pitcher to earn the honor since Rodrigo López in 2002, and the fourth left-handed hurler to win the award, joining Randy Myers (1997), Mike Cuellar (1974), and Dave McNally (1968).

MANSO THE MANAGER: Third Base Coach Tony Mansolino was named the interim manager on May 17, replacing Brandon Hyde...The Orioles went 60-59 (.504) to finish the season under Mansolino.

HEY NOW: Ryan O'Hearn was the lone All-Star representative, winning a fan vote to start the 95th Midsummer Classic as the designated hitter for the American League in Atlanta...O'Hearn was selected to his first All-Star Game.

Since balloting returned in 1970, the 46 fan elections by the Orioles trail the Yankees (75) and Red Sox (59) among AL clubs.

OPENING ACT: The Orioles opened their 72nd season in Baltimore by beating the Blue Jays, 12-2, at Rogers Centre on March 27...The Birds hit six home runs, the most on Opening Day in franchise history (since 1954) and tied for the second most on Opening Day in MLB history, trailing only the 2019 Los Angeles Dodgers (8 HR, 3/28/19 vs. AZ)...The 10-run margin of victory tied an Opening Day franchise record, joining April 10, 1975 at Detroit (10-0) and April 6, 1973 vs. Milwaukee (10-0)...The O's have won their last three Opening Days (2023-25) by a combined score of 33-14...Their streak of scoring 10+ runs in the first game of the year is tied for the MLB record, shared by the Cincinnati Reds (1893-95) and Milwaukee Brewers (1994-96), per the Elias Sports Bureau...Baltimore improved to 47-25 (.653) all-time on Opening Day, boasting MLB's highest winning percentage on the first game of the season since the team moved in 1954.

Tyler O'Neill went deep in his MLB-record sixth consecutive Opening Day.

Cedric Mullins and Adley Rutschman both hit two home runs, tying the most on Opening Day in team history...Prior to 2025, only two Orioles in franchise history had multi-homer games on Opening Day: Sam Horn (4/9/90 at KC) and National Baseball Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson (4/6/73 vs. MIL)...Mullins joined Horn (6 RBI, 4/9/90) as the only players in club history (since 1954) with 5+ RBI on Opening Day, while Rutschman joined Don Baylor as the only players in MLB since 1900 to have 10 total hits in their first three career Opening Day games, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

Jackson Holliday, Heston Kjerstad, Cade Povich, Albert Suárez, and Tomoyuki Sugano all made their first career Opening Day rosters.

TIE GAMES

The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, and Texas Rangers-1.

2025 PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING AWARDS

The Orioles named OF Nate George as the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year and RHP Trey Gibson as the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

George slashed .337/.413/.483 (109-for-323) with 14 doubles, nine triples, five home runs, 66 runs scored, 42 RBI, 38 walks, and 50 stolen bases in 87 regular season games between the FCL Orioles, Single-A Delmarva, and High-A Aberdeen. He opened the season with the FCL Orioles where he hit .383 (31-for-81) with one double, two triples, and three home runs in his first taste of professional action. George earned FCL Player of the Week honors for the week of May 19-25 when he went 11-for-22 (.500) at the plate with one home run, eight runs scored, seven RBI, one walk, one hit-by-pitch, and five stolen bases. In the 23 games that he played with the FCL Orioles from May 3-June 7, he paced all FCL hitters in batting average and hits while ranking in the top five in stolen bases (2nd, 13), total bases (3rd, 45), OPS (4th, 1.007), runs (T-4th, 20), on-base percentage (5th, .451), and slugging percentage (5th, .556). In 43 games with the Shorebirds from June 10-August 9, he led all Carolina League hitters in hits (55), batting average (.337), slugging percentage (.491), OPS (.901), triples (7), and total bases (80) while ranking tied for first in stolen bases (25). He is currently ranked as the No. 2 Orioles prospect by Baseball America and No. 8 by MLB Pipeline, while being ranked as the No. 78 overall prospect in Baseball America's Top 100.

Gibson went 5-8 with a 4.26 ERA (57 ER/120.1 IP), allowing 102 hits, 67 total runs, 13 home runs, nine hit batters, 44 walks, and 166 strikeouts in 26 games (25 starts) between High-A Aberdeen, Double-A Chesapeake, and Triple-A Norfolk. Gibson began the year with the IronBirds, going 1-2 with a 5.12 ERA (22 ER/38.2 IP) on 32 hits (7 HR), 14 walks, and three hit batters with 67 strikeouts in nine games (8 GS). Following his final outing with the IronBirds on June 1, his 67 strikeouts were tied for first among all South Atlantic League pitchers along with Wilmington's Alex Clemmey. Gibson was promoted to Chesapeake on June 3, and went 3-2 with a 1.55 ERA (9 ER/52.1 IP) on 29 hits (1 HR), 18 walks, and four hit batters with 68 strikeouts in 10 starts with the Baysox. Gibson was twice named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week (7/6 & 7/27) and during his 10-outing stint with Chesapeake from June 7-August 7, ranked among all Eastern League pitchers in games started (T-1st, 10), strikeouts (2nd, 68), opponent batting average (2nd, .157), ERA (3rd, 1.55), WHIP (3rd, 0.90), and innings pitched (4th, 52.1 IP). Gibson was promoted to Norfolk on August 12, and went 1-4 with a 7.98 ERA (26 ER/29.1 IP) in seven starts with the Tides. He was named the International League Pitcher of the Week on August 17, after completing 5.0 scoreless innings on one hit with six strikeouts and earning the win on August 13 at Jacksonville. Gibson finished the year tied for fourth among all MiLB pitchers with 166 strikeouts, the most by an Orioles farmhand since Cade Povich (171) in 2023. Gibson is currently ranked as the No. 8 O's prospect by Baseball America and No. 12 Orioles prospect by MLB Pipeline.

FCL Orioles Manager Christian Frias was named the winner of the Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award, in honor of the late Orioles coach and manager who is widely regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Each year, a minor league staff member who exemplifies Ripken's qualities as an instructor is recognized with the award. Frias, the Salinas, Puerto Rico native, completed his fourth season as manager of the FCL Orioles and his sixth overall in the Orioles organization. He served as Fundamentals Coach for the Rookie-level Florida Complex League in 2021 after joining the Orioles organization in the same role in 2020 with the Gulf Coast League Orioles. This past season, he led the FCL Orioles to a 35-24 record and played an integral role in the development of several top prospects, including George and right-handed pitcher Esteban Mejia. On August 28, he was named the FCL Manager of the Year. Under Frias' instruction, several FCL Orioles earned league-wide accolades, including outfielder Jordan Sanchez, who was named the FCL Most Valuable Player and selected as an FCL All-Star along with Mejia and catcher Andrew Tess.

Area scout Rich Amaral was named the Jim Russo Scout of the Year, named in honor of the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Amaral joined the Orioles in 2018 as a scout living in Southern California and extended his coverage into the state of Arizona this year. Before scouting, he played 10 Major League seasons with the Seattle Mariners (1991-1998) and Orioles (1999-2000). Recent signees under Amaral include Orioles 2025 fourth-round draft pick Colin Yeaman (University of California, Irvine) and Orioles 2025 fifth-round pick Jaiden Lo Re (Corona Del Sol High School, AZ).

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2026 First-Year Player Draft will be held in Philadelphia, Pa. during All-Star Week from July 11-12. This year, the Orioles will have the No. 7 overall pick. Since the First-Year Player Draft began in 1965, 38 of Baltimore's 59 first-round selections have gone on to appear in the major leagues. Of those 38 players, 32 made their major league debut with the Orioles.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC BASEBALL ACADEMY

On January 16, 2024, the Orioles officially opened their new state-of-the-art Baltimore Orioles Dominican Republic Baseball Academy. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, which includes three full fields, a sports-turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities. The complex houses more than 100 players, coaches, and staff, providing dormitory-style rooms and entertainment spaces, and features three classrooms and a computer lab, which provides on-site learning and an education plan for each player, as well as a dining room that offers daily nutritious meals.

The project was led by landowner and developer Brian Mejia of Brison SRL. The Orioles were represented by renowned Dominican academy architect, José Mella. Mella is considered one of the foremost training facility architects in the Dominican Republic and has designed around half of the current academies in the DR today.

Among those in attendance for the opening ceremony were Dominican Republic President Luis Abinader, Dominican Republic Vice Minister of Sports Elvis Duarte, and Dominican Republic Commissioner of Baseball Junior Noboa, along with Orioles President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Mike Elias and Orioles Vice President of International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez. In addition to the several dignitaries in attendance, 2023 Mariano Rivera AL Reliever of the Year Félix Bautista, along with Orioles alumni including National Baseball Hall of Famer Vladimir Guerrero Sr., Hanser Alberto, Daniel Cabrera, Nelson Cruz, Radhames Liz, Melvin Mora, and Ubaldo Jiménez, also attended the ceremony.

ORIOLES IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET

Since President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Mike Elias and Vice President, International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez joined the organization during the 2018–19 offseason, the Orioles have reshaped their approach to the international market, establishing it as a foundational pillar of the club's long-term player acquisition and development strategy.

That philosophy is now yielding consistent, high-impact results. Headlined by Samuel Basallo — the organization's No. 1 prospect per MLB Pipeline and Baseball America and one of the top catching prospects in the game — Baltimore's international pipeline continues to produce elite talent. Basallo's importance to the organization was further emphasized when he agreed to an eight-year contract extension through the 2033 season, with a club option for 2034. Other homegrown Latin American Orioles ranked among Baseball America's Top 30 organizational prospects include Luis De León (5), Esteban Mejia (7), Aron Estrada (11), Thomas Sosa (16), Jordan Sanchez (19), Stiven Martinez (24), Joshua Liranzo (25), and Keeler Morfe (30), highlighting both the depth and upside of the club's international signings.

The Orioles' commitment to this model was further highlighted by the 2026 international signing class, which set a new organizational benchmark with five players ranked among MLB Pipeline's Top 50 international prospects after never previously signing more than two in a single class. That group was led by Jose Luis Acevedo, the highest-paid international signee in club history, underscoring the club's continued investment in scouting, player development, and long-term talent acquisition on the global stage.

Notes

F. Robinson (1966), Cruz (2014), C. Davis (2013 & 2015), and Trumbo (2016) are only O's to lead MLB.

Murray (1981) tied for AL lead with 22.

Mountcastle (2021) led all rookies and set the franchise's single-season rookie record.

Mullins (2021) is only Oriole with a 30 HR/30 SB season.

Leaders:

Murray - 5
C. Davis - 4
Powell - 4
Palmeiro - 4

Notes

Tejada (2004) and C. Davis (2013) are the only O's to lead MLB

Four w/ 100 RBI in 1996, one shy of the MLB record in one season

12 Orioles have had multiple 100 RBI seasons

HOMER'S ODYSSEY

Jonathan Villar hit his 21st home run of the season on September 11, 2019, against Los Angeles-NL off of LHP Caleb Ferguson. The homer, a three-run shot in the seventh inning that gave the O's a 5-2 lead, was the 6,106th of the 2019 major league season, surpassing the previous single-season record of 6,105 home runs in 2017. The bat that Villar used to hit the historic home run was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 134 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 64, including 11 by both Chris Davis and Anthony Santander, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. Santander's four Eutaw Street home runs in 2021 are a single-season ballpark record. He also slugged the 100th Eutaw Street home run in the history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards on June 29, 2019. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw Street in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008, was the only walk-off Eutaw Street home run in park history until August 11, 2019, when Rio Ruiz clubbed a two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Orioles their first walk-off win of the season. On July 31, 2024, Jackson Holliday became the first Oriole and second player in ballpark history to hit his first career home run onto Eutaw Street, joining Houston's Robbie Grossman on July 31, 2013.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

GENERAL: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 284-259, in their 72-year regular season history...The Orioles have also hit three Postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one at Memorial Stadium [McNally 1970] and Oriole Park [Bonilla 1996])...They have a 166-117 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including an 92-76 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

A BIG MONTH: Manny Machado hit three grand slams in August 2017, becoming the 10th player in Major League Baseball history, and the first in Orioles history, to hit three grand slams in one calendar month.

TWO IN ONE INNING: Steve Clevenger and Nolan Reimold each slugged a grand slam in the bottom of the eighth inning on September 11, 2015, the first set of teammates to each hit a grand slam in the same inning since Carlos Beltran and Cliff Floyd of the New York Mets on July 16, 2006 vs. Chicago-NL.

THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Rangers combined to hit three grand slams on August 6, 1986, in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth-inning grand slams for the Orioles.

TWO IN ONE GAME: An Oriole has hit two grand slams in the same game three times...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998 at Cleveland...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at-bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961, while Robinson did so in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970.

GENTILE HIT FIVE IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five grand slams in 1961...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched the record in 2006.

POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellas and Dave McNally are the only MLB pitchers to hit a grand slam in Postseason play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellas connected in Game 1 of the ALCS off the Twins' Jim Perry, the first grand slam by a pitcher in LCS history...McNally hit his in Game 3 of the World Series off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium.

GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six grand slams as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tied for the sixth-highest total of career grand slams allowed in major league history...Jake Arrieta, Scott McGregor, Dave McNally, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece...Jim Palmer never allowed a grand slam in 558 games spanning 3,948.0 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 40 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons, including 23 in the past 56 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Dodgers (13), Red Sox (13), Astros (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Tigers (11), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10-or-more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau, becoming the second foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat, joining a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber (23), Claude Williams (22), Dickie Kerr (21), and Ed Cicotte (21).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19, 1980, en route to a team-record 25 victories. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: Dave McNally (8/25) and Mike Cuellar (8/27) in 1971, and Jim Palmer (8/20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 98, ORIOLES 72, Yankees 70, Braves 62, Reds 56, Pirates 53, Red Sox 52, Cubs 51, Phillies 49, Dodgers 47, Giants 47, Twins 46, Guardians 44, Mariners 44, Rangers 44, Tigers 44, Royals 42, Angels 39, White Sox 39, Astros 33, Blue Jays 31, Rockies 29, Athletics 27, Padres 27, Expos/Nationals 23, D-backs 21, Mets 20, Brewers 13, Marlins 13, and Rays 9.

A total of 18 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Manny Machado is the last Oriole to win multiple Gold Gloves, earned his second honor in 2015 (also 2013).

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each), and Ramón Urías. Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

SILVER SLUGGER AWARDS

The Silver Slugger Award was initiated at the end of the 1980 season by Hillerich & Bradsby, the maker of Louisville Slugger bats, to honor the best offensive player at each position by a vote of managers and coaches around the league.

A total of 16 Orioles have won Silver Sluggers, with three winning multiple times, led by Cal Ripken, Jr., with eight. Anthony Santander (OF) is the last Oriole to earn a Silver Slugger, doing so in 2024. Gunnar Henderson (UT) and Adley Rutschman (C) earned their first career Silver Sluggers in 2023. Henderson became the first Orioles rookie to earn the honor and first O's player to win a Silver Slugger at the utility position, which was introduced in 2022. Of the 24 Silver Sluggers in O's history, 11 have been won by a shortstop.

Orioles winners include: Cal Ripken, Jr. (eight); Eddie Murray and Miguel Tejada (two each); Roberto Alomar, Chris Davis, J.J. Hardy, Gunnar Henderson, Aubrey Huff, Adam Jones, Melvin Mora, Cedric Mullins, Rafael Palmeiro, Adley Rutschman, Anthony Santander, Mickey Tettleton, and Mark Trumbo (one each).

ALL-STAR GAME

DYNAMIC DUO: At the 2024 All-Star Game in Arlington, RHP Corbin Burnes and C Adley Rutschman became the first pair of teammates to form the starting battery at the All-Star game since 2016, when San Francisco's Johnny Cueto (P) and Buster Posey (C) did so in San Diego, and the first for the AL since 2006, when Detroit's Kenny Rogers (P) and Iván Rodríguez (C) did so in Pittsburgh. It marked the first time in Orioles history that it happened.

ROOKIE SENSATIONS: RHP Yennier Cano was named to the 2023 American League All-Star team in Seattle, one of four Orioles (RHP Félix Bautista, OF Austin Hays, & C Adley Rutschman)...According to Stats Perform, Cano became the sixth rookie in O's history (since 1954) to be named to the All-Star team, joining LHP John Means (2019), C Andy Etchebarren (1966), RHP Chuck Estrada, 1B Jim Gentile, and INF Ron Hansen (1960).

HE MEANS BUSINESS: LHP John Means was named to the 2019 American League All-Star team as the lone Orioles representative...He became the first homegrown O's starter to make the All-Star team since Hall of Famer Mike Mussina in 1999 in Boston.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, INF Brian Roberts and INF Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since INF Roberto Alomar and INF Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's INF Willie Randolph and INF Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: INF Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles-NL's RHP Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking INF Brooks Robinson's AL mark...He technically started at shortstop after Texas' INF Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST: Ripken's appearance in the 2001 All-Star Game in Seattle made him, at 40 years and nearly 11 months, the oldest Oriole to take part in an All-Star Game...Harold Baines was 40 years and 4 months old when he made his sixth and final American League All-Star team with the Orioles in 1999 at Boston's Fenway Park...The youngest Oriole selected to an AL All-Star team was pitcher Jerry Walker, who was 20 years and 5 months old when he was named to the pitching staff for the second of two All-Star games played in 1959...Walker started and went 3.0 innings on the mound in the game, which was played at the Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

MOST MOST VALUABLES: Oriole players have won six All-Star Game MVP Awards (now known as the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player Award), tied with the San Francisco Giants for the most among all teams since the award's inception in 1962...Cal Ripken, Jr. was a two-time winner (1991 at Toronto, 2001 at Seattle)...Other Orioles to win the award are Brooks Robinson (1964 at St. Louis), Frank Robinson (1971 at Detroit), Roberto Alomar (1998 at Colorado), and Miguel Tejada (2005 at Detroit)...Ripken is one of five players to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards, along with Willie Mays, Steve Garvey, Gary Carter, and Mike Trout.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: INF Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years (13x at SS, 5x at 3B), 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are 3B Brooks Robinson (4x); 2B Roberto Alomar and OF Adam Jones (3x); 1B Boog Powell, OF Frank Robinson, and INF Manny Machado (3x at 3B, 1x at SS); and C Terry Kennedy, 2B Bobby Grich, OF Ken Singleton, 1B Eddie Murray, OF Brady Anderson, 2B Brian Roberts, SS Miguel Tejada, 1B Chris Davis, SS JJ. Hardy, DH Nelson Cruz, and DH Ryan O'Hearn.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: SS Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...INF Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off RHP Dennis Martínez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off RHP Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by 3B Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off RHP Fergie Jenkins, solo); OF Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off RHP Dock Ellis, one on); OF Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off RHP Tom Seaver, solo); and 2B Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off RHP Trevor Hoffman, solo).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958 and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher LHP Billy O'Dell retired the final nine batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...Baltimore's C Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 14 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its second year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...INF Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...RHP Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...OF Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and OF Ken Griffey, Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the Home Run Derby.

HOME RUN DERBY

RUTSCHMAN FLIPS A SWITCH: Adley Rutschman participated in the 2023 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, the closest MLB ballpark to his hometown of Sherwood, Ore., and the first MLB park he ever visited...With his father, Randy, pitching, the switch-hitter homered 20 times left-handed in the initial three-minute period in the first round before hitting seven home runs from the right side during the 30-second bonus round...Rutschman fell to Chicago White Sox slugger Luis Robert Jr., who hit 28 homers.

MANCINI'S EPIC PERFORMANCE: Trey Mancini finished as the runner-up in the 2021 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado behind New York Mets slugger Pete Alonso, who repeated as champion...Mancini, the No. 6 seed, defeated Oakland's Matt Olson (No. 3 seed) in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 24-23, setting a franchise record for the most home runs in a single round...He then defeated Colorado's Trevor Story (No. 7 seed), 13-12, in the semifinals, before falling to No. 5 seed Alonso, 23-22, in the championship round...Mancini's 59 total home runs are the most hit by an Orioles batter in Home Run Derby history...Mancini's pitcher for the Derby was Notre Dame Fighting Irish baseball team assistant coach Chuck Ristano, who also threw to Mancini when he captured the 2012 Big East Home Run Derby.

ORIOLES DERBY WINNERS: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991.

ORIOLES DERBY PARTICIPANTS: After totaling 28 home runs prior to All-Star Week, Gunnar Henderson participated in the 2024 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Globe Life Field in Arlington, but was eliminated after belting 11 opening-round homers...Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Petco Park in San Diego...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated Corey Seager in the opening round, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual champion Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby at Great American Ball Park in Cincinnati, Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12...In 2014, Adam Jones was selected by captain José Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field in Minneapolis...After blasting four in the first round, Jones was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total...After leading the majors in homers at the break, Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York, finishing fourth...In addition to winning the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format...Rafael Palmeiro also participated in the 2004 Home Run Derby with Tejada, advancing to the semifinals and finishing third with 14 home runs, as well as the 1998 Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado...B.J. Surhoff appeared in the 1999 Home Run Derby at Fenway Park in Boston...Brady Anderson appeared in back-to-back Home Run Derby contests: in 1996 at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia and 1997 at Jacobs Field in Cleveland...Mickey Tettleton participated in the 1989 Home Run Derby at Anaheim Stadium...Cal Ripken, Jr. and Eddie Murray represented the Orioles in the inaugural Home Run Derby in 1985 at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis...After his win in 1991 at The Skydome in Toronto, Ripken was unable to repeat as Derby champion in the 1992 Home Run Derby at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego.

POSTSEASON

The Orioles clinched a Wild Card berth in 2024, marking consecutive Postseason appearances for the first time since doing so in 1996 and 1997...Baltimore won the American League East with an AL-high 101 wins in 2023, advancing to the Postseason for the first time in seven years...Texas swept the O's in the AL Division Series, 3-0, and went on to win the first World Series in franchise history...Baltimore advanced to the playoffs three times over a five year span (2012-16)...The O's earned a berth in the 2016 AL Wild Card Game, where they fell to the Toronto Blue Jays, 5-2, in 11 innings...For the first time since 1997, the Orioles won the AL East in 2014...The Birds swept the Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, 3-0, facing the previous three AL Cy Young award winners at the time (RHP Max Scherzer '13, LHP David Price '12, RHP Justin Verlander '11) before falling to the Kansas City Royals in the ALCS, 4-0...The Orioles advanced to Postseason play in 2012 for the first time since 1997, winning the AL Wild Card Game over Texas in Arlington before losing to the New York Yankees in the ALDS, 3-2...Baltimore reached the playoffs in consecutive seasons in 1996-97, the first time making back-to-back Postseason appearances since 1973-74...In both 1996 and 1997, the Orioles won in the ALDS before losing in the ALCS...In 1997, they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996, they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the eventual World Series Champion New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

WILD CARD: Since its inception, the Orioles have appeared in two Wild Card Games and one Wild Card Series...In 2012, the Orioles defeated the Texas Rangers, 5-1, in the first year of the Wild Card Game at Globe Life Park in Arlington...In 2016, the Orioles fell to the Toronto Blue Jays at Rogers Centre, 5-2, in 11 innings...The Wild Card Round moved to a best-of-three series in 2022...The O's made their first appearance under the new format in 2024, dropping both games to the Kansas City Royals at Oriole Park.

DIVISION SERIES: The O's have appeared in five Division Series, winning three...They are 11-8 overall (.579)...The O's are 6-4 at home and 5-4 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 10 ALCS, going 5-5...They are 21-20 (.512)...The Birds are 10-11 at home and 11-9 on the road...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first nine ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first three ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in 1973 before losing the second game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its six World Series, but has a .576 winning percentage in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POSTSEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the Postseason in 15 different seasons and are 52-45 (.536)...They are 26-24 at home and 26-21 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the sixth-best Postseason winning percentage of any team behind the Marlins (.600), Mets (.562), Giants (.556), Yankees (.546), and Royals (.538)...They also have a 2.88 ERA in Postseason play, the lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 Postseason games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 20 Postseason games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards (1996, 1997, 2012, 2014, 2023, 2024), the Orioles have drawn 947,172 fans (average 47,359)...The largest crowd for a Postseason game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in 1966...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

The Orioles went 97-63 and claimed their first American League pennant. The Orioles swept the four-game series against the Los Angeles Dodgers to win their first World Series title.

At the age of 20, Jim Palmer beat Sandy Koufax in Game 2 to become the youngest pitcher to ever throw a shutout in the World Series. Frank Robinson, who also won the Triple Crown in 1966, was named the World Series Most Valuable Player. Following the season, Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in American League MVP voting.

The Orioles finished the season with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. The Orioles won each of the first two games in Baltimore and took the first game in Detroit to sweep the series 3-0 and advance to the ALCS to take on the Kansas City Royals.

The Orioles dropped each of the first two games in Baltimore to the Royals. The series then shifted to Kansas City where the Royals would pull out 2-1 wins in both Games 3 and 4 to complete the sweep of Baltimore and eliminate the Orioles.

BASEBALL HISTORY IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875, the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly-formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before folding. The league awarded a new team to New York to fill the vacancy. That team, the Highlanders, eventually became the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove led the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues: the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium (later called Memorial Stadium), Baltimore returned to the major leagues and the Orioles returned to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles returned to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but went on to a 54-100 season.

NOVEMBER 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swapped 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards laid the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles received 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling, and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his major league debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1959.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the “big mitt” designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm’s knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the Postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying “HERE.”

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – “Would You Believe Four Straight?” The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver’s Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname “Hoover” from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with the New York Yankees. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on “Thanks, Brooks Day,” celebrating the end of the third baseman’s 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces’ two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to “Orioles Magic.”

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series, but the Pirates’ “fam-i-lee” came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games. They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a major league-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – “Why Not?” was the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional “Field of Dreams” celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of “retro ballparks” and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe’s complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city’s second All-Star Game, following a week-long “All-Star Fan Fest,” the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig’s all-time record. Ripken’s homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – The Orioles break the New York Yankees’ 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team with 257 long balls. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the Wild Card team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles Postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles’ final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota’s Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season’s end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script “Baltimore” across the chest. The Orioles’ road uniform had featured a script “Orioles” across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card “play-in” game at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson’s club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season’s end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in major league history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Division title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club-record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis’ fourth-inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 11 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to Postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

2018 – The Orioles finished the season with a franchise-worst 115 losses, posting a record of 47-115 (.290) and 61 games behind first-place Boston.

2019 – The Orioles finished the season with over 100 losses for the second consecutive year, posting a record of 54-108 (.333) and 49 games behind first-place New York-AL. On June 3, the Orioles selected catcher Adley Rutschman from Oregon State University with the No. 1 overall selection of the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. On July 25 at Los Angeles-AL, Stevie Wilkerson became the first position player to record a save since the save became an official statistic in 1969.

2020 – Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Orioles played a 60-game regular season schedule, the fewest in the club’s history.

2021 – Following the pandemic-shortened season, fans returned to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time in 557 days for the club’s home opener on April 8. After missing the entire 2020 season battling stage III colon cancer, Trey Mancini took the field to a standing ovation from the Birdland faithful. Cedric Mullins went on to become the first player in Orioles history (since 1954) to record 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a single season.

2022 – Adley Rutschman broke the record for doubles by an O’s rookie and by an Orioles catcher in one season, while Anthony Santander tied an MLB record by homering from both sides of the plate in the same game four times in a single year. On July 17, Jackson Holliday became the third No. 1 overall selection by Baltimore in club history when he was drafted out of Stillwater (OK) High School.

2023 – The Orioles clinched their first AL East Division title since 2014 and advanced to the Postseason for the first time since 2016. Brandon Hyde won BBWAA AL Manager of the Year after leading the O’s to the best record in the AL and became only the second manager in team history with 100 wins in a season. Gunnar Henderson set franchise rookie records with 66 extra-base hits, 100 runs, and a .489 slugging percentage, earning unanimous BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year in the process. Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias was named MLB Executive of the Year. The pitching staff set a club record with 1,431 strikeouts.

2024 – The Orioles secured consecutive Postseason berths for the first time since doing so in 1996 and 1997. With a 91-71 record, it also marked the first time the Orioles had 90 wins in back-to-back seasons since 1982 (94) and 1983 (98). Gunnar Henderson set the Orioles single season home run record for a shortstop with 37 homers, breaking the previous mark of 34 set by Cal Ripken, Jr. (1991) and Miguel Tejada (2004).

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)

Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)

Brooks Robinson, 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson, OF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 17 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Mike Mussina, RHP (2019)
Harold Baines, OF (2019)
Lee Smith, RHP (2019)
Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Lincecum, Sr., LF (2017)
John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)

Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)
Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976)

In addition to the 12 former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the major leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman, emeritus of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kansas City Royals and Braves.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

Five former Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually to a broadcaster for major contributions to baseball:

Jon Miller (2010)
Herb Carneal (1996)
Bob Murphy (1994)

Chuck Thompson (1993)
Ernie Harwell (1981)

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 11 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: Harold Baines (Easton), John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Vic Willis (Elkton), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore).

Additionally, of the 11 members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, five once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. (1981-2001) and Harold Baines (1993-95, 1997-99, 2000) played for Baltimore, while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

BALTIMORE TIES TO THE HALL OF FAME

Along with the modern-day Orioles in the Baseball Hall of Fame, several other players and managers with Orioles connections throughout Baltimore's rich baseball heritage have been enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. (induction year in parenthesis):

Edward "Ned" Hanlon, Manager (1996)	Roger Bresnahan, C (1945)
Joe Kelley, OF/INF (1971)	Dan Brouthers, 1B (1945)
Rube Marquard, LHP (1971)	Hughie Jennings, SS (1945)
William "Candy" Cummings, RHP (1959)	Wilbert Robinson, Manager (1945)
Frank "Home Run" Baker, 3B (1955)	Rogers Hornsby, 2B (1942)
Charles "Chief" Bender, RHP (1953)	Wee Willie Keeler, OF (1939)
Robert M. "Lefty" Grove, LHP (1947)	John McGraw, Manager (1937)
Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity, RHP (1946)	George Herman "Babe" Ruth, OF (1936)

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Double Day Field on May 14, 2007. It turned out to be the last Hall of Fame Game played; the 2008 game between the Padres and Cubs was rained out, and the game was discontinued after that. The Orioles went 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one postponed by rain. The results:

1998 - Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1	1967 - Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0
1990 - Orioles vs. Montreal Expos (ppd., rain)	1961 - Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager, or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least three years. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame were former Orioles outfielder Adam Jones, former outfielder Joe Orsulak, and longtime broadcaster Tom Davis in 2025.

Jones spent 11 of his 14 major league seasons in a Baltimore uniform (2008-18) following his acquisition from the Seattle Mariners on February 8, 2008. He ranks among all-time franchise leaders (since 1954) in hits (4th, 1,781), home runs (5th, 263), RBI (5th, 866), runs (5th, 875), doubles (7th, 305), and games played (8th, 1,613). A five-time All-Star (2009, 2012-15), Jones finished his Orioles career as a three-time Roberto Clemente Award nominee (2011, 2013, 2016), a six-time Heart and Hustle Award nominee (2012, 2014-18), and a three-time Most Valuable Oriole award winner (2011-12, 2018).

Orsulak spent five seasons with the Orioles from 1988-92, batting .281 (579-for-2,059) with 97 doubles, 15 triples, 35 home runs, and 221 RBI in 632 games. In 1991, he recorded a single-season franchise record and MLB-leading 22 outfield assists. Since then, Washington's Alfonso Soriano (2006) and Houston's Richard Hidalgo (2003) are the only outfielders in the majors to record a 22-assist season. His 54 career outfield assists rank seventh in franchise history behind Paul Blair (105), Jones/Nick Markakis (93), Al Bumbry (68), Brady Anderson (57), and Jackie Brandt (54). The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 62 former players, coaches, and managers.

“WILD BILL” HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. “Wild Bill” Hagy. Leading cheers from “The Roar from 34” at Memorial Stadium, “Wild Bill” became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out “O-R-I-O-L-E-S” from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team’s top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out. Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

On July 28, 2020, Mossila “Mo” Gaba was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Billy Hagy Award. The Orioles honored Mo as one of the most passionate and devoted fans in franchise history.

Mo, who passed away the night of his election to the Hall of Fame, began calling in to 105.7 The Fan’s sports programming in 2015 at the age of nine. Unbeknownst to his mother, Sonya, he would call in on afternoons when he got home from school to share his unparalleled knowledge of Baltimore sports with local fans and radio listeners. Despite losing his eyesight due to a malignant tumor when he was just nine months old and enduring four different battles with cancer throughout his life, his infectious laughter and enthusiasm quickly captured the hearts of local sports fans, making him a Baltimore celebrity and a household name.

Mo regularly made appearances at Orioles games and events, including in 2017, when he threw out the ceremonial first pitch as part of Kids’ Opening Day, and in 2019, when his “Play Ball!” call on Kids’ Opening Day officially marked the start of a new season. After inspiring countless fans and Baltimoreans with his positivity, PressBox recognized Mo as the 2019 Sportsperson of the Year.

Mo’s positive energy was constant throughout every battle and brought the entire city of Baltimore together in the face of ongoing crisis. His unwavering positivity and kindness were qualities every Baltimorean aspires to emulate. Mo Gaba impacted more people in his 14 years than most people do in an entire lifetime, and the Orioles are honored to forever celebrate him as a member of the Orioles Hall of Fame.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ball club, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

The most recent winner of the Herb Armstrong Award was Tom Davis in 2025. Davis served as a fill-in radio and TV play-by-play broadcaster for Orioles games for three decades. A five-time Maryland Sportscaster of the Year winner, Davis began his career with WBAL-TV and WCBM Radio before joining WQSR-FM as a sportscaster on the No. 1-rated "Rouse & Company" morning show. Additionally, he hosted pre-and postgame "O's Xtra" shows on MASN, and continues to produce and host "Wall to Wall Baseball" and "Take Me Out to the Ballgame." Davis was honored with the John F. Steadman Lifetime Achievement Award by the Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Left-handed pitcher Trevor Rogers was voted the winner of the 2025 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award. Rogers became the fourth left-handed pitcher in franchise history to be named Most Valuable Oriole, joining Randy Myers (1997), Mike Cuellar (1974), and Dave McNally (1968), and the first pitcher to earn the honor since Rodrigo Lopez (2002).

The southpaw went 9-3 with a 1.81 ERA (22 ER/109.2 IP) on 70 hits (6 HR), 23 total runs, two hit batters, 29 walks, and 103 strikeouts in 18 starts. Rogers' 1.81 ERA was the lowest mark by an Orioles starter (min. 100.0 IP) in franchise history, ahead of McNally (1.95 ERA, 1968) and Jim Palmer (2.07 ERA, 1972). His .180 (70-for-388) opponent average, .263 opponent slugging percentage, and .503 opponent OPS were the lowest marks by an Orioles starter (min. 100.0 IP) in franchise history (since 1954), while his .240 opponent on-base percentage ranked second behind McNally (.232 OBP, 1968).

He was named American League Pitcher of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 1.29 ERA (6 ER/42.0 IP) across six starts, becoming the first Oriole to earn the honor since Corbin Burnes (September 2024) and the first Orioles left-hander since Erik Bedard (July 2007). Rogers became the first Oriole in franchise history (since 1954) to make at least five starts and allow one or zero runs in each of the outings in a single month.

Rogers made 10 straight starts of tossing 6.0+ innings and allowing two or fewer runs from July 6-August 30, the longest such streak in club history (since 1954). It marked the longest stretch by an MLB starter (excluding openers) in a single season since Seattle's Félix Hernández (16 GS, 5/18-8/11/14).

His 5.5 Baseball Reference Wins Above Replacement (bWAR) ranked fifth among MLB left-handed pitchers behind Philadelphia's Cristopher Sánchez (8.0 bWAR), Detroit's Tarik Skubal (6.6 bWAR), Boston's Garrett Crochet (6.3 bWAR), and Cincinnati's Andrew Abbott (5.6 bWAR). It was the third-highest mark by an Orioles southpaw in franchise history behind McNally (5.9 bWAR, 1968) and Bedard (5.7 bWAR, 2007).

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. The award is named in honor of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Fourteen players — Eddie Murray (seven), Cal Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Adam Jones (three), Rafael Palmiero (three), Frank Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Gunnar Henderson, Stu Miller, Palmer, Boog Powell, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (two) — have won the award more than once.

EARL WEAVER

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 27th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons — all in Baltimore — ranks 10th on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the majors. He also ranks fourth all-time with 96 ejections as a manager.

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later, moving from Class-D to Triple-A over 11 years. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games or more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

Weaver's philosophy — "Pitching, defense, and three-run homers"— belied his use of statistics to manage. In the 1970's, he was the first to chart how his players fared against opposing pitchers, and his pitchers against opposing hitters, with file cards on each, a pre-cursor to modern analytics. He also famously argued to keep a young Eddie Murray on the big league roster in 1977, and moved the 6'4" Cal Ripken, Jr. from third base to shortstop as a rookie in 1982.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1.5 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

His number was retired by the Orioles in 1982.

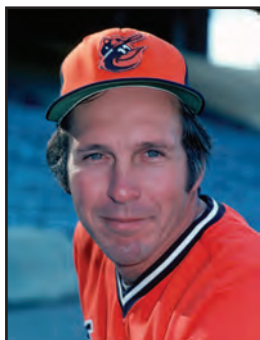

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, passed away in January 2026.

BROOKS ROBINSON

5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 - one of two players, along with Frank Robinson, to win league, All-Star, and World Series MVP Awards.

He was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, he was awarded the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award for his integrity and honorable service as an Ordnance Parts Specialist in the Army National Guard in response to the Vietnam War.

Robinson holds six major league fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 16th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team. He and Boston's Carl Yastrzemski share the MLB record for the most seasons with one team.

His number was retired in 1977, and he served as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles from 2018 until his passing on September 26, 2023, at age 86.

CAL RIPKEN, JR.

8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 12 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Miguel Cabrera, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop.

Ripken broke the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Following his legendary playing career Ripken entered the business world and enjoyed tremendous success. Having divested from two successful businesses, his energy is squarely on the Orioles and his family's non-profit, the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation that was founded in 2001 and is celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2026.

The impact the foundation has had has been astounding, with The Ripken Foundation impacting 14 million kids. Since 2006, it has invested over $63,000,000 in our Youth Mentoring efforts starting with the signature program that launched them as a national non-profit, Badges for Baseball. Since 2008, the foundation has raised $379,000,000 and used these funds for its many Ripken programs and projects across the country. Over the last 10 years they have raised $33,300,000 for 801 STEM Centers, updated 251 STEM Centers, and will update at least another 150 are coming in 2026.

In 2025 alone the Ripken Foundation made a tremendous impact in communities of need, impacting over 1.4 million kids, having partnered with the Orioles to open eight STEM Centers in Baltimore City with more initiatives being planned. Additional impacts include reaching 126 Youth Development Parks built across 27 states and Washington, DC., giving kids clean and safe places to play and learn, surpassing 800 STEM Centers installed in 27 states and DC, securing a major new partnership with MLB/Nike RBI establishing 30 instructional league sites, with 30 more to come in 2026, relaunching the I'm GREAT Program just for girls in 47 sites, reinforcing a focus on confidence, character, and personal growth, and fundraising efforts reaching over $20M in private operating funds, and $3,540,000 coming from special events.

2026 provides a milestone for the foundation, as it celebrates 25 years in operation. The year will be marked by a year-long celebration that includes 25 moments of impact, additional fundraising events, reaching its 900th STEM Center opening and more.

In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred and since 2007, Cal has served as a Special Envoy to the US State Department. In that role, has made goodwill trips to China, Japan, Nicaragua and the Czech Republic.

Prior to the 2024 season, Ripken helped usher in the next chapter of Orioles baseball, joining the club's ownership group led by David M. Rubenstein.

FRANK ROBINSON

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all time in numerous statistical categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and was the first player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL), a feat matched by Shohei Ohtani in 2024 (LAD) and 2021 (LAA). He played in 14 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. He and Brooks Robinson are the only players to win league, All-Star, and World Series MVP Awards.

While still an active player, he became the first Black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-91), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

Robinson passed away on February 7, 2019, at the age of 83. His widow, Barbara, lives in Los Angeles.

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is second on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the live-ball era (1920-present).

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only seven pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 Postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times. Palmer is one of only nine pitchers to spend at least 18 seasons with one team.

His number was retired in a pre-game ceremony in 1985.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 30th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

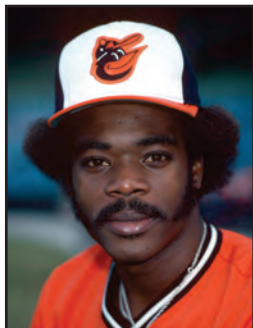

He works tirelessly to raise funds for projects and organizations to promote autism awareness.

EDDIE MURRAY

Eddie played 12.5 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Miguel Cabrera, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits. He is the only player with 500+ career home runs who did not hit at least 40 in a single season.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in modern-day history and ranks 10th all-time in RBI. He is MLB's all-time leader with 128 sacrifice flies, one more than former teammate Car Ripken, Jr. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI.

He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in major league history. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman and is seventh all-time in games played at any position.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1989. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles, where he was teammates with fellow Hall of Famer Ozzie Smith at Locke High School.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

B A L T I M O R E O R I O L E S

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards (OPACY) opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

OPACY inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park is unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural turfgrass are only some of the features that tie it to the magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s.

In the 34 years since, Camden Yards has been one of the leading catalysts for year-round tourism in Baltimore and Maryland. The downtown attraction has welcomed more than 80 million fans, including individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived more than $10 billion in economic impact from fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 34 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in major concerts, festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

Oriole Park captured the nation's attention from day one, and the seasons that followed have served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and across the Mid-Atlantic region, as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™. In December 2023, the Orioles agreed to a partnership with the State of Maryland, Governor Wes Moore, and the Maryland Stadium Authority that will keep the Orioles at Camden Yards for thirty more years. The deal represents the commitment by the Orioles organization to the City of Baltimore, the fans, and the desire to reinvigorate the area in and around the ballpark and the downtown corridor.

Designed by the architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK), with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the construction of the Oriole Park at Camden Yards was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Poca, which is now center field at Camden Yards.

BALLPARK UPGRADES AND ENHANCEMENTS

Ahead of the 2026 season, the Orioles embarked on significant construction projects to enhance the in-game experience for fans throughout the ballpark. The Maryland Stadium Authority approved plans for several upgrades to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in May 2025, with enhancements beginning after the conclusion of the 2025 regular season to be fully operational for the 2026 campaign.

VIDEOBOARD AND RIBBON BOARDS: As part of the upgrades that took place prior to the 2026 season, the Orioles constructed an all-new center field videoboard. The new videoboard is two and a half times larger than the previous videoboard that stood in center field from 1992-2025, making it the 12th-largest videoboard among Major League Baseball stadiums. Additionally, the Orioles upgraded the ribbon boards spanning the Club Level, adding 1,125 feet of new ribbon board and over 16 million new pixels throughout Oriole Park, all featuring 4K resolution.

SCOREBOARD SOCIAL: Located in center field below the new scoreboard, Scoreboard Social was constructed before the 2026 season as a fun, communal space for groups to gather before and during games. The area features a clear view of center field, flat screen high-definition televisions, and a private bar. The space can be booked for groups of up to 300 and will serve as an exciting atmosphere open to all fans when not reserved for private events.

CLUB LEVEL RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2026 season, the Club Level at Oriole Park was completely reimagined with upgrades meant to elevate the fan experience. Upgrades included two brand-new bars and elevated decor, including new furniture and lighting. All Club Level Suites will be updated prior to the 2027 season.

PREMIUM CLUB: The Orioles introduced a new, one-of-a-kind baseball-watching experience before the 2026 season with the launch of a Premium Club. The exclusive space features comfortable, upscale seating behind home plate in Sections 31-43, accompanied by complimentary parking and a private entrance into the Club through Home Plate Plaza. The Premium Club takes the place of the former Jim Henneman Press Box, which was moved one section over down the third base side following the 2025 season.

BIRD BATH SPLASH ZONE: The Orioles expanded the Bird Bath Splash Zone to include both Sections 84 and 86 before the 2025 season. Located in left center field, the Bird Bath Splash Zone debuted in Section 86 on May 12, 2023. An idea that came from the players, the Bird Bath Splash Zone was born from the 2023 team's extra-base hit and home run celebrations, with Mr. Splash hosing down fans after key moments in the game.

FOOD & BEVERAGE: The Orioles introduced the Birdland Value Menu prior to the 2025 season. The menu features various food and drink items, including adult beverages, with several items priced at $5 or less. The Birdland Value Menu was created to allow for a more affordable experience at the ballpark.

Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles announced a new partnership with Levy, the market leader in creating unforgettable hospitality experiences at sports and entertainment venues, to create "Brick & Whistle Food Co.," providing fans with an unrivaled, exclusive hospitality experience synonymous with the historic Baltimore Orioles brand. The partnership includes incorporating iconic tastes of Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, upgrading technology to allow faster and frictionless checkout options, and new culinary training opportunities for up-and-coming hospitality talent.

TEAM STORE: Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles retail partner, Fanatics, officially overtook all in-venue retail locations, including a revamp of the Orioles Team Store located on Eutaw Street.

PROTECTIVE NETTING: In a continued effort to create a safe and family-friendly atmosphere, the Orioles extended protective netting at OPACY down each foul line to near each foul pole in August 2019. Protective netting was also extended to near the foul poles at Ed Smith Stadium prior to the start of 2020 Spring Training.

WARNING TRACK: The natural surface of the warning track, installed in 2013 to replace the original rubberized warning track from 1992, is composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.

HOMEGROWN GRASS: Prior to the 2026 season, the Orioles resodded the field at Oriole Park using homegrown Kentucky bluegrass supplied by Collins Wharf Sod on the Eastern Shore, marking the first time Camden Yards has featured Maryland-grown grass since the early 2000s.

LEED CERTIFICATION: In 2018, after a multi-year effort of research and enhancements, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded OPACY with the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification for an existing building. The accompanying B&O Warehouse was also awarded with LEED Silver.

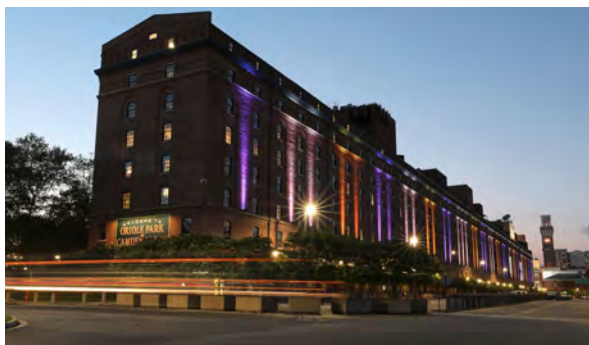

B&O WAREHOUSE BUILDING: Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate and houses office space for the Orioles as well as banquet facilities and the ballpark's central kitchen. Built between 1898 and 1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet and is only 51 feet wide.

WAREHOUSE LIGHTS: Throughout the year, the Orioles show support for numerous causes by lighting the lights on the front of the Warehouse in specific colors, including rainbow colors to show support for the LGBTQ+ community during Pride Month, among others.

EUTAW STREET: The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street, which gives access to the Orioles Team Store, concession locations, and various plaques and displays, including markings for every home run ball to land on Eutaw Street.

FOUL POLES: Both the left and right field foul poles are the original poles used while the Orioles played at Memorial Stadium.

SEAT FEATURES: Every aisle seat in the park includes a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants from 1894-96.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION AND RECORDS

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as their designated 50 millionth fan to attend a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history (since 1954) entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan. In 72 seasons and 5,327 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 130,230,366 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 80,384,778 fans in 2,611 regular season dates in 34 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The O's have averaged 30,787 fans per game in 2,611 dates at Oriole Park.

2024: On Wednesday, September 4, the Orioles surpassed 2 million fans at Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time since 2017. The club saw eight regular season sellouts and 2,281,129 total fans, their most since 2016.

2023: Postseason baseball returned to Oriole Park in 2023, hosting Games 1 and 2 of the ALDS on Saturday, October 7, and Sunday, October 8. Both games were sellouts, totaling 92,925 fans across the weekend. During the regular season, the club saw six sellouts, with the largest crowd coming for the home opener on Friday, April 7 (45,017), and second highest on Saturday, August 5 (44,326).

COVID-19: To begin the 2021 season, Oriole Park opened at 25 percent capacity to comply with the City of Baltimore's health and safety mandates related to the COVID-19 pandemic. OPACY returned to full capacity on June 1, staying that way for the remainder of the season. To prioritize the health and safety of the team, staff, and fans during the global COVID-19 pandemic, fans were not permitted at Oriole Park during the 2020 season.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set on August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES:
 3 million: 66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
 2 million: 43 home dates ('94)
 1 million: 22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 32 non-strike-shortened or pandemic-shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 4,965 on September 8, 2021, against the Kansas City Royals. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: Fans were not permitted at any regular season Major League Baseball games during the 2020 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to the 2020 season, on April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park that was closed to the public. The game was not considered in the tally of total season attendance and the date was not included in the average attendance per game.

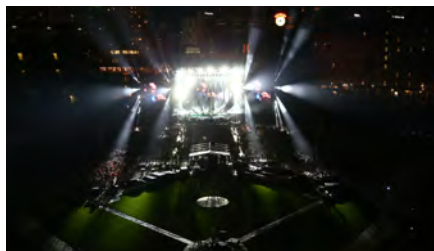

ENTERTAINMENT

SAVANNAH BANANAS: As part of the 2025 Banana Ball World Tour, the Orioles hosted the Savannah Bananas for two sold-out games at Oriole Park on August 1-2. The Savannah Bananas, an exhibition barnstorming baseball team, faced off against the Firefighters for two-hour-long games filled with high-energy entertainment and crowd participation. Several Orioles alumni made guest appearances during the series, including Adam Jones, Nick Markakis, and Matt Wieters, and former manager Buck Showalter.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN & THE E STREET BAND: The Orioles welcomed Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band on Friday, September 13, 2024, for the third-ever major concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards as part of the band's international tour. The concert, which was originally scheduled for fall 2023, was postponed due to illness.

PAUL McCARTNEY: The Orioles hosted singer-songwriter Paul McCartney for the second-ever major concert at Camden Yards on Sunday, June 12, as part of his 2022 GOT BACK tour. Presented by AEG and Orioles Entertainment, the performance to a sold-out crowd was McCartney's first Baltimore concert in nearly 60 years, as he last visited Charm City in 1964 during The Beatles' first North American tour.

BILLY JOEL: The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series was headlined by Rock & Roll Hall of Famer and music legend Billy Joel. Billy Joel's July 26 show marked the first-ever concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Summer Music Series also featured Friday Fireworks & Women of Country Music, as well as Saturday Roof Deck Sessions during home games.

DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT ORIOLE PARK

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME: Located by the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famers' likenesses and a brief description of their accomplishments.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

ORIOLES LEGENDS PARK: In celebration of the 20th anniversary of OPACY in 2012, the Orioles unveiled larger-than-life bronze sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members. The sculptures, created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Oriole Legends Park.

MID-ATLANTIC SCOUTS HALL OF FAME: A tribute to baseball scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall along Eutaw Street.

MARYLAND STATE ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME: The names of Marylanders who left their mark through their athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. SEAT: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (previously Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat. The seat was removed prior to the 2022 season following construction that moved the left field wall back by approximately 30 feet.

EDDIE MURRAY SEAT: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

BIRDLAND MURALS: In partnership with PNC Bank, the Birdland Murals series highlights Baltimore's vibrant arts community and allows Orioles fans to experience the incredible talents of several local artists. The Orioles and PNC Bank have partnered with artists local to Baltimore since the series' inception in 2019, working together to complete nine murals by 12 different artists across Oriole Park and Baltimore City.

Completed in June 2025, the most recent mural in the series is located by Gate C inside Oriole Park. A vibrant piece by celebrated Baltimore artist Kid Balloon, the mural serves as a tribute to the city's artistic energy and a photo-worthy backdrop for thousands of fans on game days. Kid Balloon is known for his bold, community-driven work, and was selected by the Orioles for his strong ties to the city and commitment to making art accessible. For more information about the Orioles' Birdland Mural Series, fans can visit Orioles.com/Murals.

PLAQUES AT ORIOLE PARK: In ceremonies preceding Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, 'Senior' dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached 'perfect practice, makes perfect' and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the 'right way' and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

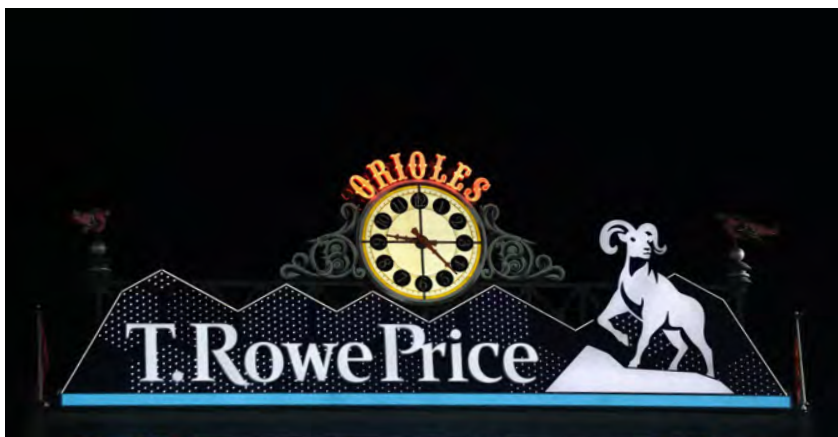

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the major league record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Prior to the start of the 2024 season, the Orioles renamed the press box “The Jim Henneman Press Box,” in honor of the late dean of Orioles sportswriters. A beloved fixture in the Orioles’ press box from 1958 until his passing in May 2025, “Henny” was a friend and mentor to countless people in the Baltimore sports community. The Orioles installed a plaque in the press box to commemorate of the renaming of “The Jim Henneman Press Box.”

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles’ public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime press box supervisor; the late John Steadman, former sports editor and columnist; and longtime Orioles public relations director, Bob Brown. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

A plaque in the umpires’ tunnel is dedicated to the memory of Ernie Tyler, who for 48 years served as the Umpires’ Attendant for the Orioles. Tyler, whose sons Fred and Jim still work for the Orioles, dedicated his life to his job, at one time working 3,819 consecutive games.

T. ROWE PRICE SIGN: The Orioles and Baltimore-based T. Rowe Price announced their new partnership in June 2024. As part of the partnership, which also included the Orioles first-ever jersey patch, a T. Rowe Price sign was placed atop the center field scoreboard. The sign sits 171.2’ above the field, measures 76’ 5” wide by 20’ 8” tall, and weighs 2.85 tons. It is made up of more than 5,000 LED lights and has countless variations which the Orioles use to enhance the fan experience. The sign also features a big horned ram, the official mascot of T. Rowe Price.

THE JIM HENNEMAN PRESS BOX

In January 2024, the Baltimore Orioles announced that the press box at Oriole Park at Camden Yards will forever be named "The Jim Henneman Press Box" in honor of the late Jim Henneman, a longtime Baltimore sportswriter and official scorer.

Henneman called the honor "a dream come true."

A Baltimore native, Henneman began his writing career with the Baltimore News-American (then News-Post) in 1958 before being named public relations director of the Baltimore Bullets in 1968, a position he held until 1973. He returned to the News-American as an Orioles beat writer until 1979, when he moved to The Evening Sun and The Baltimore Sun on the Orioles beat from 1980-95, including a year as the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) president in 1984.

He served as the primary official scorer at Orioles home games from 1997-2019, and is the author of "60 Years of Orioles Magic," the Orioles' 60th anniversary book published in 2015.

Henneman remained a fixture in the Oriole Park press box, working as a columnist for PressBox Online and serving as a base of knowledge for all that entered.

Henneman attended Loyola University Maryland (then Loyola College in Maryland) and Calvert Hall College High School. At Calvert Hall, he was a standout pitcher and competed against future National Baseball Hall of Famer and Southern High School star Al Kaline. He also worked in the clubhouse for the International League Orioles at Memorial Stadium, three and a half blocks from his home in the Ednor Gardens neighborhood. At 18 years old, he attended the Orioles' home opener on April 15, 1954, in which they defeated the White Sox, 3-1, in front of 46,354 fans at Memorial Stadium to mark Baltimore's return to the major leagues after 52 years.

Henneman passed away on May 22, 2025, at the age of 89.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Only MLB, BBWAA, and Orioles-issued credentials are accepted at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. All media credential requests must be submitted through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Credentials will be issued in accordance with the Baltimore Orioles Credential Policy and are non-transferable. All requests for single-game credentials must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of first pitch. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times. Credentialed media must adhere to the policies implemented by the Baltimore Orioles. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked and/or denial for future media access. Any credentials that are not picked up or are canceled by an organization will force the Orioles PR department to re-evaluate the outlet's status and possibly deny future requests. Credential requests sent via email or after the deadline will not be completed or approved. Any questions regarding credentials should be sent to mediacredentials@orioles.com.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter the ballpark via Gate E, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park to the left of Home Plate Plaza. Gate E opens 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games and 3.5 hours before first pitch for day games. Credential pick-up is located at Gate E. Credentials will only be released on an individual basis and to those with a government-issued photo ID. All bags and equipment are subject to search upon entry and at other points as deemed necessary. Media members without a valid credential will not be permitted into Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

PARKING: Media parking in Lot A is available on a first-come, first-served basis, with overflow parking located in Lots B/C. Lots are located off Lee Street. All media approved for daily credentials will automatically be added to the parking list. Media must give their name and show a photo ID to the parking attendant. BBWAA members should email Orioles PR (mediacredentials@orioles.com) at least 24 hours in advance when covering a game to be added to the parking list.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are forbidden from seeking autographs at any time. Any media member found in violation of this rule will have their credential revoked.

PRESS BOX: The newly renovated and relocated Jim Henneman Press Box sits along the third baseline on Lower Press (2nd floor). Media can access the press box via the elevators located in Home Plate Plaza. Broadcast booths are located on the Upper Press Level (3rd floor) and are reserved for rightsholders or other entities as assigned by Orioles PR. Media are required to follow the prioritized seating positions located on seating charts throughout The Jim Henneman Press Box. Television outlets and still photographers may not film or shoot from the press box without prior permission from Orioles PR.

FIELD ACCESS: Media must enter and exit the field through the umpires' tunnel. The field is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies that have been announced as open to media. Media wishing to be on the field for a pregame ceremony not announced as open to media must receive prior approval from Orioles PR. Media must remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times and are not allowed on the playing field under any circumstance.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Only media with properly marked MLB, BBWAA, or team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Media must enter the clubhouse through the media door and may not use the main clubhouse entrance. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots in front of players' lockers. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. The Orioles clubhouse will open each day for media access prior to batting practice and again approximately 10 minutes after the final out. Updates and exact timing will be announced on X via @OriolesPR. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, showers, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times. Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. Cell phones are not allowed to be used to take photo or video in the clubhouse. Media may not use cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media while in the clubhouse, or during active Manager or General Manager's media availability. The use of smart glasses by the media to record audio/video, take photos, and/or disseminate information is not permitted within Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Media are not permitted to take photo or video on the service level without prior permission from Orioles PR.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media while in the clubhouse will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture photo or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges.

INTERVIEWS: Phone, in-studio, or sit-down interviews must be arranged through the Orioles PR department by emailing oriolespr@orioles.com. Media are not to contact players directly and may not conduct interviews on the field during stretch or batting practice without prior permission from Orioles PR. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY: Manager Craig Albarnaz will meet with media in the Interview Room prior to each game and again approximately 10 minutes following the end of the game. Exact timings will be communicated on X via @OriolesPR.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts, and camera positions are assigned by the Orioles photography department. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans and are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Photographers are able to utilize the overhangs located on the first and third base sides on the Club Level. Once the game has started, photographers may use the entrances/exits outside of the first and third base photo wells. A storage room for photographers is located adjacent to the press box on Lower Press Level. Press box seats are reserved for working print media. No still photographs are permitted in either clubhouse without permission from the Public Relations Department of each team.

*Please note: policies are subject to change.

TELEVISION

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. Every available regular season Orioles game is televised live and in high definition on MASN and on their direct-to-consumer streaming option called MASN+. Launched in April 2025, MASN+ provides subscribers 24/7 MASN content including Orioles Classics, O's Xtra, and all other MASN programming, in addition to every available Orioles game. MASN's seven-state territory – one of the largest among all professional sports – reaches households from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. For more information, please visit MASNsports.com.

Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on X, Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko and Brendan Mortensen cover the team year-round on MASNsports.com and can be followed on X at @masnRoch and @BrendanMorty.

RADIO

Hearst's 98 Rock FM & WBAL NewsRadio AM/FM serves as the flagship station of the six-state, 30-plus station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

The Orioles' radio rights returned to 98 Rock & WBAL NewsRadio in 2022, which have served as the broadcast home for the Orioles for 46 of the Orioles 73 years in Baltimore, most recently from 2010-14.

ORIOLES BROADCAST TEAM

KEVIN BROWN

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Brown is in his eighth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and his fifth as the primary television play-by-play announcer for MASN. Brown began his tenure with the Orioles in 2019 as one of the club's play-by-play announcers on the Orioles Radio Network, while making select appearances on MASN.

The Orioles and Brown reached a multi-year contract extension in 2024, ensuring he will remain the voice of the team's television broadcast on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Brown has served as a play-by-play announcer for ESPN since 2015. In 2024, he was named the play-by-play announcer for ESPN's alternate Statcast edition of Sunday Night Baseball and in 2025 he made his TV Postseason debut calling the Wild Card Series on ESPN and ABC. Brown has called the Women's College World Series, the championship event in college softball, since 2021, and currently broadcasts college basketball throughout the fall and winter. His time at ESPN has also included work on college football and hockey, high school football and Little League baseball on TV, plus the MLB Postseason on ESPN Radio.

From 2011-17, Brown worked for the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals, serving as the Assistant Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations from 2011-14, and Director from 2015-17, where he was the lead voice of the team, calling radio and television broadcasts. His first major league broadcasts included games for the Nationals in 2017 and Toronto Blue Jays in 2018.

Brown graduated from the Newhouse School at Syracuse University (NY) in 2011 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Brianne, daughter, Emma, and dog, Shep.

BRETT HOLLANDER

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Brett Hollander is in his seventh season as an in-game contributor on both the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network and the Orioles Radio Network. He serves as a play-by-play announcer for both radio and television, as well as a sideline reporter and pre- and postgame host for MASN.

A lifelong Baltimore resident, Hollander began covering the Orioles in 2008 for CBS Radio. He joined WBAL Radio in 2010 as the host of Sportsline and anchored the then-flagship station's Orioles coverage from 2011-14. Hollander has extensively covered Baltimore sports, ranging from collegiate athletics to the Ravens and Orioles, and has appeared on various local stations including on WBAL-TV and 98 Rock FM. He was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year in 2015.

Hollander graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2007 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Erin, and two daughters, Mae and Violet.

JOSH LEWIN

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Josh Lewin enters his first year with the club after a 29-year absence from the Baltimore market, returning to the airwaves as a play-by-play announcer on the Orioles Radio Network. Lewin hosted WBAL's Sportsline program for parts of three years in the mid-1990s while filling in on Orioles broadcasts.

From there, he became one of the original MLB on FOX TV announcers, remaining with FOX through 2011 while also providing NHL and NFL play-by-play. Lewin has performed play-by-play on TV and radio for the Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, Texas Rangers, New York Mets, and Boston Red Sox while enjoying a 13-year run as the voice of the NFL's San Diego Chargers.

He lives in Solana Beach, Calif. during the offseason and is currently in his 10th year as voice of the UCLA Bruins. Lewin graduated from Northwestern University in 1990. He and his wife, Stacy, have four adult children, Kelsey, Comona, Emily, and Daley, and a dachshund named Schmooley.

ROB LONG

REPORTER

Rob Long is in his eighth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, serving as an in-game contributor and pre- and postgame show host for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. Long made his MASN debut in 2009. In addition to his work with the Orioles, Long serves as a host of the “Big Bad Morning Show” on 105.7 The Fan.

Prior to his career in broadcasting, Long served as a police officer in South Carolina and was a member of the United States Air Force. A Baltimore native, Long is also the head coach of the Rosedale Christian Academy women’s basketball team.

He currently resides in Essex, Md., and is the proud father of three children: Brionna, Robbie, and Stephania.

BEN McDONALD

COLOR ANALYST

Ben McDonald joined the Orioles talent lineup full-time in 2018 after spending eight years as a regular contributor on O’s broadcasts, having made select appearances on the MASN and the Orioles Radio Network since 2010.

The former right-handed pitcher spent seven of his nine major league seasons with the Orioles from 1989-95 after being selected by Baltimore with the first overall pick in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft. His career started on a high note, throwing a four-hit shutout in his first career start. He went on to win 40 games over three years and threw more than 200 innings in a season three times, including once with the Milwaukee Brewers. He finished his career with an overall record of 78-70, including 58-53 with the O’s. In addition to his major league baseball career, McDonald won a gold medal in the 1988 Olympics, picking up two wins for Team USA, and won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award in 1989, given annually to the top amateur baseball player in the nation. McDonald was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008 after finishing his career at LSU with a 29-14 record, 3.24 ERA, and 373 strikeouts.

McDonald’s broadcasting career began in 2001 as a color analyst for Louisiana State University Baseball, his alma mater. In addition to his work with the Orioles, McDonald serves as a color analyst for ESPN and the SEC Network, including covering the Men’s College World Series and the 2024 and 2025 MLB Wild Card Series.

McDonald currently resides in Denham Springs, La., with his wife, Nicole. The couple has two children, daughter Jorie and son Jase.

MELANIE NEWMAN

REPORTER

Melanie Newman is in her seventh season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. She serves as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and appears on MASN as an in-game reporter and host of the pre- and postgame shows.

Since becoming the first female play-by-play announcer in Orioles history in 2020, Newman has continued to break barriers. On July 21, 2021, she was part of the first all-female broadcast team for a Major League Baseball game, when the Orioles faced the Tampa Bay Rays on YouTube’s “MLB Game of the Week.” Two months later on September 29, Newman joined Jessica Mendoza in the booth for the first all-female MLB broadcast on ESPN.

Newman has been calling professional baseball games for 12 years. She previously served as the announcer for Boston’s Advanced-A affiliate Salem Red Sox, where she was a part of the first all-female booth in professional baseball, Texas’ Double-A affiliate Frisco RoughRiders, and Arizona’s Double-A affiliate Mobile BayBears. She also served as a media communications coordinator for the Arizona Fall League.

In addition to her work in Major League Baseball, Newman serves as a host for MLB Network and has made appearances on ESPN, the ACC Network, and BBC. Her work has included serving as a sideline reporter for the World Axe Throwing League, ACC men’s and women’s championship events, the Big South Conference, and FBS Bowl Games.

JIM PALMER

COLOR ANALYST

National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer is in his 34th season as a color analyst with MASN. The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Palmer spent his entire career with Baltimore after signing with the club in 1963.

Palmer made his major league debut in 1965 at 19 years old. One year later, he became the youngest pitcher in major league history to throw a shutout in the World Series, beating Sandy Koufax in Game 2. The Orioles would go on to sweep the Dodgers for the first World Series Championship in franchise history. Palmer was a member of all three of the Orioles' World Series Championship teams and went 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA in 17 Postseason games. He was the first pitcher in Major League Baseball history to win a World Series in three different decades.

Palmer is known for being one of baseball's premier pitchers in the 1970s, throwing more innings and recording more wins than any other American League pitcher during the decade. Among his numerous accomplishments include a no-hitter against Oakland in 1969, and never giving up a grand slam or allowing back-to-back home runs in his career.

He finished his career with a 268-152 record, 2.86 ERA, and 2,212 strikeouts. An eight-time 20-game winner, Palmer led his league in innings pitched four times, wins three times, and ERA twice. He was named an All-Star six times, including four starts, and is a four-time Gold Glove Award winner.

Palmer was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990. He currently resides in Palm Beach, Fla., with his wife, Susan, and stepson, Spencer.

BEN WAGNER

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Ben Wagner enters his third season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, and his ninth year in Major League Baseball, serving as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and the primary play-by-play backup on MASN.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Wagner was a play-by-play announcer for the Toronto Blue Jays, making appearances on both radio and television. He also handled radio and television broadcast duties for Toronto's Triple-A affiliate, the Buffalo Bisons, from 2007-17.

Wagner got his start in professional baseball with Philadelphia's Class-A Affiliate, the Jersey Shore BlueClaws, in 2004. He graduated from Indiana State University where he served as the sports director at WISU Radio for three years, broadcasting baseball, football, and basketball.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Wagner calls college basketball. He currently resides in Baltimore.

THE VOICE OF ORIOLE PARK

ADRIENNE ROBERSON

PA ANNOUNCER

Adrienne Roberson is entering her sixth season as the public address announcer for the Baltimore Orioles. She became the first female voice of Oriole Park when she was named to the position full-time at the start of the 2021 season and is one of four active female PA announcers in Major League Baseball. The 2026 season marks Roberson's 25th in professional baseball after spending 18 years as the voice of the now Chesapeake Baysox, the organization's Double-A affiliate. During that time, Roberson made several appearances as a guest public address announcer for the Orioles, including Mother's Day

Weekend celebrations from 2015-19. She began her career with the Knoxville Smokies, the Double-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, where she spent two seasons.

Roberson has also spent the last 12 years as a PA announcer for Georgetown University Athletics, announcing men's lacrosse, football, women's basketball, soccer, and volleyball games. Away from sports, Roberson records audiobooks and voiceovers and works for Archbishop Spalding in Severn, Md., as their Attendance Coordinator. Fans can also hear Roberson in the video game, "MLB The Show 25."

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Roberson received her Bachelor of Science in Communication, Broadcasting, and Sports Management from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville in 1997. She currently resides in Baltimore.

“SARASOTA’S CROWN JEWEL”

The 2026 season marks the Orioles 17th year of holding Major League Spring Training operations at Ed Smith Stadium. This past year, Orioles added a brand-new, state-of-the-art $21 million player development facility at the Ed Smith Stadium complex. The facility includes new batting cages, a hitting lab, pitching lab, office space, conference rooms, and newly renovated locker rooms. The facility, which will be used by the major league roster and staff during Spring Training and by minor league players and coaches during the season, is another example of the organization’s commitment and investment to their Spring Training home.

ORIOLES IN SARASOTA

• According to a recent independent analysis commissioned by Sarasota County, the Orioles' economic impact in the state of Florida has topped more than $832 million since 2015.

• Since moving year-round operations to Sarasota in 2010, the Orioles have donated more than $4.4 million in cash and in-kind contributions to the community.

• "Sarasota's Crown Jewel" was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium become "Birdland South."

• The Orioles opened the new Player Development Complex in Sarasota, Fla. prior to the start of 2026 Spring Training. The state-of-the-art 45,000 square foot building features a technology cage, indoor cages and infield training area, classrooms, conference rooms, offices, locker rooms, lounge, covered pitching area, and covered visitors batting cages, in addition to a nearly-33,000 square foot outdoor turf agility field. For more information on the Player Development Complex, visit orioles.com/SarasotaComplex.
